HP race tight, BJP sweep in Guj: Exit poll

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

THE BJP appears to head for a record victory in the Gujarat Assembly elections while the race in Himachal Pradesh could be unexpectedly tight, if the poll of exit polls is any indicator. Exit poll results came out in the evening after the last phase of Gujarat Assembly elections ended on Monday.

Pollsters were unanimous in predicting a clean sweep for the BJP in Gujarat, with the Congress finishing a distant second. AAP could consider itself lucky if it crosses single digit. If the BJP wins, it would be a record seventh successive term for it in Gujarat.

However, the Congress appears to have given the BJP a run for its money in Himachal Pradesh, exit polls suggest. Counting of votes will take place on December 8.

The poll of exit polls gave 132 seats to the BJP in the 182-member Gujarat Assembly with the Congress and its allies trailing at 38. If the projection holds, it would be a huge blow for the Congress, which secured 77 seats in the 2017 Assembly elections. Its lacklustre performance could affect its morale at a time when it is looking to build up some steam ahead of the 2024 general elections. Congress leaders had claimed the party it will win despite its low key campaign in the state.

As for the AAP, its high voltage campaign may not have commensurate results on the ground in Gujarat.

In Himachal Pradesh, the BJP could retain power, with a razor thin margin, as the poll of polls gave it 35 seats, which is also the majority mark in the 68-member Assembly. The Congress could end up with 30 seats while it will be a no-show for the AAP.

However, two exit polls showed a dead heat between the BJP and the Congress in the state, where results could go either way. According to the Chanakya exit poll, it will be a cliffhanger as both the BJP and the Congress may secure 33 seats each. P10

AAP to trounce BJP in Delhi local body polls

BJP's 15-year rule at the Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD) is set to come to an end, with four exit polls predicting a clear win for the Aam Aadmi Party. After the recently completed delimitation exercise, the total number of MCD wards was reduced to 250 from 272. According to poll of polls, the AAP may win 154 of the 250 wards that were up for grabs. The party had got 48 in the last elections. The BJP, which has 181 seats, may find itself with just 84 this time, while the Congress' tally may shrink to 7 from 27. If the exit polls prove right, the AAP will have complete control over many sectors such as sanitation and garbage management, community services, public health, primary education, property tax, advertisement, toll tax, licensing (health & trade), factory licensing, architecture & town planning, and engineering.

Musician Lucky Ali alleges land grab by IAS officer Rohini Sindhuri's kin

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

WELL-known singer Lucky Ali has alleged that his property in Kenchenahalli near Yelahanka is being encroached upon by the land mafia, and has dragged the name of IAS officer Rohini Sindhuri and her family members.

Rebutting the allegations, the IAS officer's brother-in-law Madhusudan Reddy has alleged that it is Ali (64) who is troubling his family and Rohini Sindhuri has nothing to do with this, as the property belongs to him.

The dispute is related to the land located in Kenchenahalli, which Maqsood Mahmood Ali — aka Lucky Ali, son of late Bollywood actor Mehmood Ali — claims to be belonging to a trust, while Madhusudan Reddy has stated that the three-acre property was purchased from Lucky Ali's brother Mansoor M Ali in 2012.

On Sunday night, Lucky Ali posted on Facebook that he had filed a complaint with the Director General & Inspector General (DG & IG) of Police, Praveen Sood, and was bringing the same to public attention.

Stating that he is currently in Dubai for work and hence it was urgent, the singer stated that his farm, which is a Trust Property, was being encroached upon illegally by IAS officer Rahini Sindhuri's husband, Sudhir Reddy, and his brother Madhusudan Reddy, alleging them to be from "the Bangalore Land Mafia".

CM seeks WB help to manage urban floods

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Monday requested the World Bank to provide expertise to make Karnataka climate-resilient, as in the past 15 years, the state has witnessed severe droughts, floods, landslides and sea erosion. During discussions with Auguste Tano Kouame, country director, India, World Bank, and team, the CM said severe drought and unprecedented floods in one year had caused large-scale damage to public property and impacted people's daily lives.

Bommai said the government has taken the recent floods in Bengaluru seriously and is working on finding a permanent solution. "The State is expecting cooperation from the World Bank for the management of floods in Bengaluru, drought, sea erosion, and reducing the danger of natural disaster. Priority must be given for management of floods in Bengaluru and sea erosion," said a note issued by the Chief Minister's Office.

Bommai said the government will extend all cooperation by implementing these projects in a phased manner. The government has already announced its decision regarding joining hands with the World Bank to solve plastic waste problems in the sea, in the state budget for 2022-23.

Meeting with CS

Auguste Tano Kouame also held a meeting with Chief Secretary Vandita Sharma, BBMP Commissioner Tushar Girinath and Disaster Management Director Manoj Rajan on urban flood management.

BBMP officials gave Kouame a presentation, seeking funds for flood management. As part of the visit, members inspected the work site of the K-100 waterway project.

Earlier in the day, the BBMP Commissioner also attended a meeting called by the Chief Secretary over the first phase of G20 Summit to be held in Bengaluru from December 13 to 15. The palike was asked to make preparations for the event.

Bettahalasur out of Metro's Airport Line

Embassy Group drops out of project; Chikkajala to get station

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

BANGALORE Metro Rail Corporation Limited (BMRCL) has dropped the proposed Bettahalasur Metro Station on its Airport Line, and incorporated a new station at Chikkajala, a long-time demand by residents here.

A top Metro source said, "Bettahalasur Metro Station (between Doddajala and Bagalur Cross) was planned only because the Embassy Group wanted Metro access for residents of its sprawling complex, Embassy Boulevard. Embassy had entered into an MoU with BMRCL in April 2020 to provide nearly Rs 140 crore for construction of the station.

"This was planned on the PPP model, with BMRCL carrying out construction work and Embassy Group funding it, and figured in the Detailed Project Report (DPR). Subsequently, Embassy did not offer any funds and recently conveyed its inability to do so due to internal problems. Hence, we are forced to drop the station," said a top Metro official. He added that BMRCL's alignment passes through this route and piers have been built on either side of the station."

BMRCL Managing Director Anjum Parwez said, "Any addition or deletion of stations after the DPR has been okayed by the State and Centre needs the approval of the High Powered Committee (HPC). We will be approaching it, " he said.

The HPC has okayed Chikkajala Metro Station, Parwez said. TNIE was the first to report in April 2022 on the strong demand from residents here for a station on the Airport Line. This station had figured in the DPR submitted in 2017, but was subsequently removed. Another Metro source said the State needs to fund this station now.

There is a demand for a new Metro station at Jakkur plantation but it is unlikely to come up, said another Metro official. "Initially, Century Group and Bagmane Group, wanted to fund it jointly, but finally, Bagmane alone came forward to do it. However, it appears unlikely the station will come up here, as the Metro alignment and Bagmane project are on two ends of the road. A National Highway of India flyover runs between the two. "Building a connecting bridge requires their consent and making it either elevated or underground would be complicated. This is unlikely to happen," he added.

UNIVERSITY Grants Commission (UGC) Chairman M Jagadesh Kumar said Karnataka has been very forthcoming with implementing the National Education Policy (NEP) 2022.

Delivering the convocation address at Bangalore University's 57th convocation on Monday, he said new developments in the country are taking place in resonance with the aspirations of young people.

"As India took presidency of G20, its first-ever event involved thousands of students. This shows not only the power of our youth, but the importance of young people in the country. Over half of the Indian population is below 29 years old and to match the aspirations of the younger population, NEP 2022 was launched. I am happy to see that the state has implemented the policy so fast," he said.

Higher Education Minister Dr C N Ashwath Narayan said as the population rises, students must not become part of the problem, but become part of the solution. "In a country with a population of over 135 crore, the upcoming generation should not become a part of the problem. Instead, if they could become part of the solution then it will benefit not only India, but the entire world.

NUTRIENT DEFICIENCIES IN SOIL LEADING TO FARMER POVERTY, SAYS UAS VC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru:

NUTRIENT deficiencies are a huge threat, leading to farmers facing poverty, University of Agricultural Sciences, Bengaluru, (UAS-B) Vice-Chancellor Dr S V Suresha said here on Monday, on the occasion of World Soil Day.

He said that while water and air pollution is visible, soil pollution goes unnoticed as it is not visible to the eye. "Soil is essential for every living being. Nutrient deficiencies in soil pose a huge threat to farmers and indirectly lead them to poverty. We should maintain soil health by focusing on an adequate supply of soil nutrients, and ensure that proper health and management measures are taken in agriculture," he said.

Meanwhile, Professor of Soil Science at UAS, Dharwad, Dr G S Dasog said that conserving soil is vital in ensuring human welfare, as 95 per cent of food comes from soil. He said it was vital to conserve soil as it takes thousands of years to form just one centimeter of soil. "There are as many as nine million microorganisms in one cup of soil. Conserving soil is the beginning of human welfare," he said.

Dr Suresha said the university continues to conduct rigorous research on soil health and has been training the faculty on nutrient management of soil. "Practices like crop rotation, integrated nutrient management, water conservation and climate-related crop rotation should be made use of," he said.

INCENTIVISE EFFORTS ON SAVING SOIL: SADHGURU

Bengaluru: Sadhguru Jaggi Vasudev, whose Isha Foundation is running a worldwide campaign on saving soil, has appealed to the state and central governments to incentivise initiatives on saving soil. He arrived in the city on his 'Save Soil' campaign bike to attend a programme organised by the foundation to mark World Soil Day on Monday. The foundation launched the campaign in March and, so far, it has covered 81 nations and reached 3.19 billion people. He said the carbon content in soil should be at least 1 per cent, but in many places in India, it is below 0.68 per cent. "If the issue is not addressed, in the next 25 years, 10 per cent of the earth will witness degeneration and desertification of soil." Seeking the government's attention in this regard, he said even countries like China are looking into the issue and many UN agencies are in partnership with him. The Karnataka government has allocated funds to begin soil regeneration and assured his help to reach the target of 3 per cent. "The Government of India has allocated Rs 19,000 crore for 13 rejuvenation and reforestation projects which are almost like Cauvery Calling (planting saplings to address soil erosion). The aim is soil protection and improvement of farmers' economic condition among others. Without incentivising farmers to improve his condition, soil health cannot be improved," he felt. ENS

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

06th December : One very intriguing planetary pattern joins Venus, bringer of love and affection, together with Uranus, a planet of big surprises. It's a moment for emotional independence, and the only commitments which will last, will be those which are entered in to with total freedom, and with absolutely no outside pressure at all.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
Even if you have to do things in a roundabout way you must keep your original goals in mind. You have suffered far too many delays to put up with further time-wasting now, just as things are moving your way. Why not take the lead? It's time for world conquest!

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
Your advice for the day is to take adventurous options and watch out for legal complications. It may be too early to try and buy your way out of a complex emotional situation. You would be better off making a stand on principles that you know to be right, and going it alone if necessary.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
Something will come to the boil today. What or when is difficult to say, but it does seem certain that the air must be cleared, and that this may mean speaking, and accepting, a few home truths. The more honest you are with yourself, the more successful you'll be in an appeal to a partner.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
In partnerships of all kinds, from the most intimate to the most public, today represents a profound turning-point. Someone who has come to feel that you owe them a debt, may demand that you come up trumps. However, such pressures are not only unfair, they are likely to lead to a serious rift.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
The fact is that different times bring different possibilities, and right now the trends are highly argumentative. Do not be put out if friends blame you for past misdemeanours that you thought were long dead and buried. Try to understand why they feel as they do.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
What is said or implied today may upset your best-laid plans, yet with your organisational skills it seems that nothing can dent your ego. Your confidence is justified in view of your broad experience. At home, let children take the lead. At work, concentrate on developing your own unique skills.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
The domestic situation will be in a state of flux, and that could be an understatement! Do not let up your efforts to get financial affairs in order, even if it seems that the pressure has relaxed. The moment you loosen your grip, partners will be able to accuse you of letting them, and yourself, down.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
You may stand the risk of feeling, or being made to feel, like an outsider in your own home. Such accusations are unfair, but may be rooted in the very real attempts you have made to shift domestic responsibility on to other shoulders. You might think that partners have to put in their fair share, but they don't!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Adverse planetary aspects almost guarantee that misunderstandings will occur. Look upon this as a time when the stars are challenging you to communicate more clearly and lose no opportunity to say what really needs to be said. But whatever you say, say it with compassion.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Your horoscope has seldom held out a greater promise of change, including change for the better. No matter how hurt, angry or dismayed you feel, or if you seem to be swept by forces beyond your control, this a period of your life to treasure. Please do nothing that may diminish you in others' eyes.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
What is revealed now may make you think that a close partner or colleague is really on your side - and could soon fulfil an obligation. Yet you really must keep your feelings in check, for it is certain that you are not yet in possession of the whole, complex story.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
You may be one of the most tolerant and sympathetic individuals, yet there is a limit to how far you can devote yourself to other people and their private emotional disasters. You must make more time for yourself. In fact, you must make a point of pampering yourself for a change.

AUTORICKSHAW, which once boosted the public transport system, can be now afforded by only the rich and elite, with passengers being charged at least Rs 100 for a minimum of 1-2 km.

The fleecing is expected to stop as the traffic police department is planning to reinstate the pre-paid autorickshaw stands and expanding them into other locations.

Most Bengalureans have been forced to pay much more than the metre rate for an auto ride, or have got into haggling, and later decided to walk to their destination.

Audience and delegates faced difficulties reaching the Bengaluru Literature Festival 2022, which was being held at The Lalith Ashok Hotel. The drives charged at least Rs 100-Rs 150 from High Grounds to the venue. This is a microcosm of the city's plight.

"They (drivers) do not go by metre and charge nothing at least Rs100, even when the metre shows the fare around Rs45-Rs60. The concept of one-and-half is gone. Once when I refused to pay, the driver bluntly told me to walk," said Padmaja M, a septuagenarian.

It was also observed that they charge more near Metro stations, malls and other crowded places.

Autorickshaw drivers argued they have to return empty in one of their trips. They have to cover for the rising fuel cost, they said. Defending the drivers, a union member said: "Since drivers pay exuberant charges to RTO for licence, and to buy or rent an autorickshaw, some are forced to charge more. Since aggregators also charge high, the metre run autos are also charging high."

Around 1.40 lakh autos ply in Bengaluru, and each driver reportedly spends around Rs 1,000 per day for maintenance, say the union members.

Special Commissioner, traffic, MA Saleem admitted that there is a problem, and said that the pre-paid autorickshaws will be reintroduced on MG Road and KSRTC bus stand in Majestic. They will also start the same on Commercial Street, Opera House, Forum Mall, Jayanagar 4th Block, and at other places. The system was halted because of the pandemic. "Citizens must immediately complain to 112 or to the nearest police station. We are also working on introducing a digital swiping system to keep a check on those charging more than the fixed rates. Stern action will be taken against those charging more," he said.

Man throws paralysed wife into sump, absconds

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

A 60-year-old watchman allegedly murdered his bedridden wife by throwing her into a cellar filled with water at an under-construction site in Thurahalli on Sunday, in Thalagattapura police station limits. Shankarappa, the accused, was staying with his wife, Shivamma, 50, who was bedridden over the last two years, after she was paralysed. Shankarappa is absconding.

The incident happened between 1.30 pm and 2 pm when the victim's son and daughter had gone out. When the accused's son returned from a shop, and did not see his mother, he asked his father, who denied having seen her. The son searched the building and found her body in the sump. In the meantime, the accused had escaped. He informed the Thalagattapura police. Her body was shifted to Kempegowda Hospital for autopsy.

Plaint against urologist for trying to ruin intern's marriage using pics

PRAVEEN KUMAR @ Bengaluru

A 28-year-old doctor interning at a private hospital in Whitefield has filed a complaint on Saturday against her senior for allegedly trying to thwart her marriage to a US-based man by sending him the pictures of her taken during his birthday celebrations, around 10 days ago.

The senior doctor, an urologist in his 30s, had invited his friends along with the complainant, a resident of Kaikondrahalli in Whitefield, to his flat for a birthday bash on October 30, 2019, at Nallurahalli in Whitefield. She alleged that he had taken her pictures with him that day, and used them to ruin her marriage plans after three years, and also accused him of stalking her over the last two years, forcing her to marry him. When she refused, he allegedly threatened to kill her. The pictures were also sent to the US-based person's father. The issue came to light when the man forwarded her the pictures, seeking a clarification. However, the urologist has denied sending any pictures of the woman to anybody. On Friday, the US-based person had come to the woman's house and agreed to marry her, after which the pictures were reportedly sent to his father.

"The suspect has denied his role. His statements have been recorded. During the birthday celebrations, all the friends who were invited are said to have taken pictures with each other. Nobody has been arrested," S Girish, DCP, Whitefield division, told TNIE.

The phone number from which the pictures were sent is said to be an international number. Moreover, the urologist has been booked under various sections of the IPC.

Cops set to take Chilume head into custody again

MOHAMMED YACOOB @ Bengaluru

WITH the judicial custody of head of NGO Chilume coming to an end on December 6, the Central Division Police are all set to take the main accused in voters' data theft case into police custody for investigation in connection with another complaint.

An officer from the Halasooru Gate Police said that BBMP officials have registered complaints with both Halasuru Gate and Kadugodi Police limits 10 days ago. With his bail plea hearing coming up on Tuesday in connection with the Halasuru Gate complaint, they plan to take the accused into custody for the case at Kadugodi Police limits.

"Following directions from senior officials, the case from Kadugudi was also transferred to Halasuru Gate police station. We have to again take him into police custody for further probe as there are evidence related to impersonating booth-level officers in the voters' data tampering case," said an officer of Halasuru Gate police station.

On Tuesday, police custody of accused Maruti Gowda and Abhishek will end, who are likely to be remanded in judicial custody. "They have helped the main accused Ravikumar, and we have crucial evidence to support that. It will also help in cross-examining Ravikumar," said an official.

Meanwhile, the police have summoned both S Rangappa, BBMP Admin Commissioner, and K Srinivas, Bengaluru Urban District DC, who were appointed as Additional Electoral Registration Officers.

10-day winter session estimated to cost Rs 37 cr

With Belagavi all set to host the 10-day winter session of the state legislature from December 19, officials have prepared an estimate of Rs 37 crore to hold the event at Suvarna Vidhana Soudha. All the rooms in hotels and resorts in the city will be booked from December 18 to 30 for the session

LEGAL ACTION ON MAHA MINS IF THEY ENTER BELAGAVI: CM

Slams Maharashtra leaders for provoking people, says their visit could lead to law and order problem

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Belagavi/Hubballi

EVEN as two Maharashtra ministers Chandrakant Patil and Shamburaj Desai have made it clear that they will visit Belagavi as planned on December 6, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai said his government will not hesitate to take legal action against the duo if they enter the district.

Speaking to reporters in Hubballi on Monday, Bommai warned the two ministers against going ahead with their visit to Belagavi while indicating that his government was mulling taking legal action against them if they did so. "The boundary dispute between Karnataka and Maharashtra is a closed chapter. And the visit of Maharashtra ministers to Belagavi at this juncture is an act of provocation. Already, the Maharashtra government had been requested through bureaucratic channels not to send their ministers to Karnataka. As the situation is volatile in Belagavi, their visit could lead to a law and order problem. However, it is unfair of the two ministers to remain unrelenting despite the state's objection to their visit," he added.

In spite of the fact that Kannada and Marathi people are living in harmony, the Maharashtra government moved the Supreme Court over the vexed dispute, he said, adding that for Karnataka, the dispute was a closed chapter. And now, when the case is before the apex court, it is unfair that Maharashtra leaders are provoking people and inciting their sentiments, he said.

Stating that he would once again appeal to his Maharashtra counterpart Eknath Shinde not to send his ministers to Belagavi, Bommai said he had asked his officials to check on what actions were taken during such situations in Karnataka by the governments of the past.

Meanwhile, Karnataka Rakshana Vedike (KRV) activists staged a protest and performed urulu seve at Rani Chennamma Circle in Belagavi on Monday demanding that the district administration not allow the two ministers into Belagavi. They also urged the government to initiate stringent action against those police officers "who attacked and insulted a Kannadiga student for waving a Kannada flag" recently. The agitating activists took out a rally from Chennamma Circle to the DC office and submitted a memorandum to the DC Nitesh Patil.

KRV activists perform 'urulu seve' at Rani Chennamma Circle in Belagavi on Monday against the proposed visit to the city by two Maharashtra ministers | EXPRESS

They will not be allowed: Belagavi DC

Belagavi DC Nitesh Patil has said the two Maharashtra ministers will not be allowed to enter Belagavi on. Speaking to reporters in Belagavi on Monday, he said, "I have received the tour plan of the two ministers and an MP from Maharashtra. Earlier, they were to visit on December 3 but now their visit has been pushed to December 6. The police commissioner of Belagavi city and SP of the district have informed that the law and order situation may get disturbed if they visit at this juncture. We expect the ministers to cancel their visit... else we will take action." Prohibition orders would be imposed to ban their entry into Belagavi under IPC section 144(3) like it was issued on earlier occasions, he said.

Maha minister fails to convince Jat residents

ENS @ Belagavi/Athani

AMID tensions between Karnataka and Maharashtra over the border dispute, the Eknath Shinde government seems to be leaving no stone unturned in convincing the residents of Jat taluk who are demanding that their villages be merged with Karnataka to withdraw their agitation. On Monday, Maharashtra Industry Minister Uday Samant visited Tikundi of Jat taluk.

The residents have been protesting against the Maharashtra government alleging that it had failed to develop the taluk that houses a large number of Kannadigas. Samant announced that the Maharashtra government will solve the problem of water supply faced by Jat residents. He said that Maharashtra CM Eknath Shinde has taken the matter very seriously and will ensure that funds are released by passing a resolution in the forthcoming Cabinet meeting. Samant said that there are a good number of government Kannada schools in the border areas of Maharashtra. Along with repairing them, the government will also ensure that new Marathi schools are set up, he added.

Cutouts of Karnataka CM Basavaraj Bommai and Kannada flags welcomed Samant at Tikundi. Residents told Samant that the Maharashtra government should give a no objection certificate to the Bommai government for the merger of the villages to Karnataka.

Tikundi GP has already passed a resolution demanding their merger with Karnataka. Following this, the Sangli District Collector approached the residents to convince them, but in vain.

Muniyappa: 'Siddu CM' campaign should stop, focus on Cong win

V VELAYUDHAM @ Kolar

VETERAN Congress leader and seven-time MP KH Muniyappa took exception to a group of partymen in Kolar projecting senior party leader Siddaramaiah as the chief ministerial candidate by saying that there are 10 other contenders for the post. "The focus of the party should be on the overall development of the state", he said.

While addressing a meeting of Congress leaders and workers for the first time after it was reported that Siddaramaiah could possibly contest from Kolar, Muniyappa said that it was "very painful" for him to note that neither the state Congress leaders nor the party high command has taken any step to look into the manner in which he was defeated in the Lok Sabha poll, apparently referring to alleged infighting in the party which led to his defeat.

Muniyappa said in his speech that senior Congress leader V.R. Sudharshan will take up with the state high command and apprise them of the issues discussed in the meeting.

On Siddaramaiah's proposed candidature from Kolar, Muniyappa said he would welcome the senior leader as his only concern was that the Congress should become stronger in Kolar and Chikballapur districts.

He, however, made it clear that some leaders should immediately refrain from creating groupism by arranging meetings at village and hobli-levels.

"If I open my mouth, there will be a rift in the Congress," he said. "All should join together and ensure that all 11 Assembly segments vote in favour of the Congress in Kolar and Chikballapur districts," he said.

'Siddu is son-in-law of Chamarajpet, will win'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

FORMER minister and Chamarajpet MLA Zameer Ahmed Khan on Monday said he stands by his demand that senior Congress leader Siddaramaiah should be made the chief minister if the party comes to power in the state. Zameer said, "It is up to the party high command to decide. But I stand by what I had said and am even willing to offer the Chamarajpet assembly seat to Siddaramaiah to contest in the 2023 polls. I am a son of this constituency and Siddarmaiah is the son-in-law and he will win if he contests from here", he told reporters at Vidhana Soudha.

Asked about former CM and JDS leader H D Kumaraswamy's statement that C M Ibrahim could also become CM if the JDS comes to power, Zameer challenged the former to declare that a minority leader will become the CM even is there is an alliance government. He (HDK) knows that the JDS will not come to power on its own and is likely to win only 25-30 seats", Zameer said, adding that he has not spoken to Kumaraswamy in the recent past. Zameer dared the BJP and the JDS to wrest the Chamarajpet seat from him, adding that no one can win more that 3,500 votes against him. "Though former HD Deve Gowda and JDS leaders tried hard to ensure my defeat last time, it only increased by winning margin," he said.

Ambedkar's granddaughter to attend mega Dalit convention in Bengaluru

ENS @ Bengaluru

A mega Dalit event is being planned at the National College Grounds in Bengaluru to observe Dalit icon Dr B R Ambedkar's 'Parinirvana' - death anniversary. Ambedkar's granddaughter Ramabai Anand Teltumbde and writer Devanuru Mahadeva among others are expected to take part in the event. The event is also taking place weeks after SC/ST quota was hiked by 6 per cent in an election year.

The 'apolitical' convention named 'Dalits Cultural Resistance' against the ruling double engine BJP governments at the Centre and the state is also likely to benefit opposition parties. "DSS which took shape in 1974-75, came into existence in 1976 and branched out into factions during 1996 when the leaders differed on going with the Janata Dal or Mayawati's BSP. Now the time has come to unite to face the fascist BJP at the Centre which is proving to be unconstitutional and undemocratic in its policies", alleged Mavalli Shankar, one of the organisers.

Prakash Ambekar's Republican Party of India (RPI), Karnataka chief, R Mohanraj, however, said, "The event will be sponsored by Congress leaders, including former CM Siddaramaiah, former ministers Dr H C Mahadevappa and H Anjaneya who are trying to draw political mileage ahead of polls". However, Mavalli Shankar claimed that the programme is not sponsored by Congress as none of the DSS members are Congress party members. Mohanraj also took strong exception to Devanuru Mahadeva calling on Congress leader Rahul Gandhi during the latter's 'Bharat Jodo Yatra' in Mysuru. "Both the Congress and the BJP are two faces of fascism and we should oppose both", he said.

But Mahadeva denied the charges. "It is a cultural retaliation against the dictatorship of PM Modi-led BJP government and we expect farmers, women and other oppressed people to come together", he said. The Congress is also planning to hold a SC/ST 'samavesha' in Chitradurga in January.

Govt to pay ryots profit from cane byproducts

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka government will pay profit made out of ethanol, a sugarcane byproduct, to growers who were staging a protest for the past few weeks, demanding a better price. On Monday, after a meeting with various stakeholders, Minister for Textiles and Sugarcane Shankar Munenakoppa announced that Rs 204.47 crore will be paid to cane growers.

The farmers' association has withdrawn its hunger strike, but decided to continue with a day and night dharna as it is not happy with the amount promised by the minister.

Karnataka Rajya Raitha Sangha and Karnataka Sugarcane Growers' Association members have been protesting for many months, demanding fair and remunerative price for crops. They also threatened to seize the houses of BJP MLAs and MPs in Karnataka.

The state government constituted an expert committee to look into sharing of profit from sugarcane byproducts.

When farmers protest, many issues come before the state government. "We have taken a big decision that will help farmers. For the first time, at the Karnataka Sugarcane Control Board meeting, it was decided to share profit made through sugarcane byproducts. We will be directly crediting over Rs 200 crore to the farmers' accounts. This will be the first stage; in the next stage, as and when we get profit, a share will be given to farmers," he said.

With this, the state government will be paying an additional Rs 50 per tonne, along with the remunerative price. Farmers were demanding their share from the profit made by selling byproducts of sugarcane, Munenakoppa said.

Meanwhile, a statement issued by Kuruburu Shanthakumar, president, Karnataka Sugarcane Growers' Association, said that an additional Rs 50 per tonne is not acceptable. "Munenakoppa assured us that he will discuss it with CM Basavaraj Bommai. Therefore, we are taking back our hunger strike temporarily, but will continue with our day and night dharna," he said.

'Join CFI graffiti created before Sept 4'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Shivamogga

THE Shivamogga police has said that the 'Join CFI graffiti' found at multiple places in Shiralakoppa town are a couple of months old. The graffiti were created before September 4, said the police.

The Union Government imposed a five-year-old ban on the CFI and the Popular Front of India (PFI) on September 28.

The police had registered a suo motu case after the graffiti was found in many places at Shiralakoppa on November 28. Superintendent of Police Mithun Kumar GK said that after verifying old videos of Ganesha idol processions, it has been found that the graffiti was created before September 4.

While the KEB Ganapati procession was taken out on September 4, the HMS Ganapati procession was taken out on September 12.

It may be recalled here that the graffiti was found on electric poles, walls and boards across many areas. A staff member of the police intelligence wing noticed the graffiti and based on his complaint, the suo motu case was filed under the Karnataka Open Places Disfigurement Act. The FIR states the intention of the graffiti is to disturb harmony in Shiralakoppa. Later, the police removed the graffiti.

BOMMAI PROMISES ACTION

Earlier in the day, CM Basavaraj Bommai said action will be taken against those responsible for the graffiti. The CM said it is a desperate act after the PFI and CFI were banned. Bommai said the Shivamogga Police have already initiated action against those responsible for it. "It will be condemned in the strongest words. It is not correct on their part to do this to create disturbance in society," the CM told reporters in Bengaluru.

Govt appoints 2 Hindu priests for Datta Jayanti

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Chikkamagaluru

AHEAD of the Sangh Parivar-sponsored Datta Jayanti from Tuesday, two Agamik Hindu priests have been temporarily appointed by the government, in an order passed on Sunday.

The priests appointed are Dr Sandeep Sharma and Sridhar Bhat, who are well-versed in Agamokta and hail from Bagepalli in Chikkaballapur district. Sandeep Sharma told TNIE that from Tuesday, they will start performing religious rituals of Datta Jayanthi at the Peeta, by paying obeisance to Datta Padukas and performing homa and havana on the last day.

Bajrang Dal activist Raghu Sakleshpur said it was a victory for the four-decade struggle, and added that the outfit will appeal to the government and district administration to appoint priests permanently, instead of a temporary arrangement during Datta Jayanti.

MLA CT Ravi said it is not possible to get a Muslim priest to perform rituals at Datta Peeta, so the state government has appointed Hindu priests in deference to the wishes of the Hindu community. He blamed the erstwhile Congress government for injustice to Lord Datta and the people of the district, but the BJP government has kept its promise.

Members of the VHP, BJP and Bajrang Dal celebrated the appointment of Hindu priests by bursting crackers and distributing sweets at Hanumanathappa Circle.

M'luru blast accused, aide attended 'jungle survival' camp

DIVYA CUTINHO @ Mangaluru

MOHAMMAD Shariq, the prime accused in Mangaluru blast case and his accomplice Maaz Muneer Ahmed, who is also an accused in the 2020 terror graffiti case in Mangaluru, had attended a camp to learn 'jungle survival' skills.

The camp was held at Kodagu in May and Shariq and Maaz stayed at a homestay months before Shivamogga clashes in which they were arrested.

"The accused learnt basic skills about survival in the jungle. They used the camp experience for their further mission. After attending the camp, they returned to Shivamogga. It was just a common camp but they learnt few basic survival techniques. Thereafter, they used all their engineering skills and started making bombs and even conducted a trial blast on the banks of the Tunga river. The accused had bigger plans and they were prepared for it, " said a senior police officer.

The duo participated in wilderness survival and bushcraft skills, a practice oriented workshop by experts and ex-army personnel, the organisers claim. The survival camp is organised for those staying at the homestay to build confidence and ability to handle any kind of outdoor challenges to save their lives and those of others when needed in any emergency.

The camp was held between May 27 and 29 this year and it was open for all, including women and children. The campsite was located remotely under the Brahmagiri hills and the participants had to cook their own food and the participants were charged Rs 2,000 per day inclusive of trek, drive and other additional activities.

Meanwhile, the National Investigation Agency has started interrogation of the homestay owner and are seeking further details about the duo.

AIADMK a splintered front on Jaya's 6th death anniversary

EPS, OPS and Sasikala camps pay homage to late Tamil Nadu CM separately

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Chennai

ON the sixth death anniversary of J Jayalalithaa on Monday, AIADMK leaders, past and present, took a dig at each other while vowing to work in the footsteps of the late Tamil Nadu chief minister. AIADMK leaders Edappadi K Palaniswami and O Panneerselvam, AMMK general secretary TTV Dhinakaran and VK Sasikala paid homage separately to Jayalalithaa at her memorial on Marina Beach. At the memorial, many cadres paid tearful homage to the late leader by recalling her welfare measures.

EPS and other leaders vowed to bring back AIADMK rule and end the 'family rule' of the DMK. They also vowed to win over 'betrayers' of the party.

"The AIADMK rule that only grassroots-level cadres should elect its leader has been changed for the selfish motives of a few. This rule would be redeemed and end the autocratic activities in the party," stated the pledge taken by OPS and his supporters after paying homage.

VK Sasikala, along with her supporters, vowed to work for the party's unity so that it could register a massive win in the 2024 elections. TTV Dhinakaran and his supporters said AIADMK had lost its individuality due to a selfish group and the AMMK would redeem the ideals of Jayalalithaa. They also condemned the DMK government for acting against the interests of the people of Tamil Nadu on various issues.

At Veda Nilayam, Deepa, her husband Madhavan and others paid floral tributes to the portrait of Jayalalithaa. Later, answering queries from reporters, Deepa asked the DMK government to act upon the recommendations of Arumughaswamy commission.

LIQUOR SCAM: KAVITHA WANTS CBI QUESTIONING DEFERRED

ENS @ Hyderabad

TRS MLC and Chief Minister K Chandrasekhar Rao's daughter K Kavitha wrote to the CBI on Monday, stating that she won't be available to meet the officials on December 6, as suggested by them in their earlier message, because of her tight schedule. She, however, said that the CBI officials were free to meet her on any day between December 11 and 15, except on 13.

The CBI had sent he a notice on Friday to appear before them, under Section 160 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (CrPC), as a witness. The MLC, in her communication, said that she found that her name did not figure in either the FIR or the complaint lodged by the Ministry of Home Affairs in connection with the Delhi liquor scam. While clarifying that they cannot decide dates for her to meet them taking advantage of Section 160, she, however, did not let the impression gain ground that she was totally ignoring them, as she also indicated alternative dates and reiterated that she was a law-abiding citizen and that she would cooperate with the investigation.

Met KCR on Saturday

After CBI sent the notice on Friday, Kavitha replied the same day that she would meet them at her residence on December 6, as they had suggested. However on Saturday, after consulting her father, she sent a mail to the CBI, asking them to furnish copies of the FIR and the complaint that the MHA had lodged. Kavitha, who got a reply from the CBI that the two documents were available on its site, wrote back that she had gone through them and found that her name did not figure in either of the documents, indicating that the CBI has nothing to proceed against her in the case and also stated that she was aware of her legal rights.

Local police backing encroachers, alleges singer

ALI has accused: "With the help of his (Sudhir Reddy) wife who is an IAS officer by the name of Rohini Sindhuri, they are misusing state resources for their personal gain. They are forcibly & illegally coming inside my farm and refusing to show the relevant documents. My legal counsel is informing me that this is totally illegal and they don't have the court order to come inside the property as we are in possession, and living there since the past 50 years."

He further states in his post, "I wanted to meet you (DGP) before I left for Dubai, but since you were unavailable, we filed a complaint with the jurisdictional ACP. I have not had any positive response as yet. My family and small children are alone at the farm. I am getting no help from the local police, who are in fact supporting the encroachers and are indifferent to our situation and the legal status of our land."

He then appealed for the state police chief's help to stop the alleged illegal activity. He also mentioned that the final court hearing on the case is on December 7 and he had no choice other than making the developments public.

Rubbishing the allegations, Madhusudan Reddy issued a statement in which he stated that his father G Narayana Reddy had purchased the said land in 2012. "As there were incidents of trespassing, we approached the court which issued injunction orders in 2016. I was in the US for 20 years and returned three months ago as my father passed away and it is ridiculous that Ali is calling us a mafia. After my father's death, I went with my mother to the land when Masood Ali and his associates threatened us by wielding loaded guns. It was done at the behest of Lucky Ali," Reddy alleged.

> My family and small children are alone at the farm. I am getting no help from the local police, who are in fact supporting the encroachers and are indifferent to our situation
> Lucky Ali

Madhusudan insisted that the property belonged to him, and that it was ridiculous that Ali was dragging his sister-in-law's name into the matter. "I own this property and she (Rohini Sindhuri) has nothing to do with this. Just because he is a celebrity, he is trying to get public sympathy," Reddy alleged.

Meanwhile, he also shared a copy of the FIR registered against the Ali brothers in Yelahanka New Town police on November 30, booking them for assault and criminal trespass.

Ali, on his part, has alleged that it was Madhusudan who had illegally entered his property with 35 people and a bulldozer and had threatened his family members recently. Ali had then rushed to Amruthahalli police station where he was assured that the issue would be resolved. But the police did not help, he alleged.

Peace group visits Vizhinjam protesters

T'PURAM: A group of religious and socio-cultural leaders, involved in reconciliation efforts, visited the protesters at Vizhinjam on Monday. The 'peace mission group' comprised former Archbishop Soosa Pakiam, Guru Ratnam Jnana Thapaswi, Palayam Imam Shuhaib V P, Bishop Gabriel Mar Gregorios of Malankara Orthodox Syrian Church, Bishop Joseph Mar Barnabas of Mar Thoma Church, Gandhi Smaraka Nidhi chairman N Radhakrishnan, and former diplomat T P Sreenivasan. They visited the fishermen and women injured in police lathicharge, at the community centre and reassured them about ongoing peace negotiations with the government and also advised them to maintain peace.

IN A FIRST, ALL-WOMAN PANEL TO RUN KERALA ASSEMBLY

T'PURAM: Kerala has taken another historic step towards women empowerment. For the first time, an all-woman panel will run the seventh session of the 15th Kerala Legislative Assembly in the absence of Speaker A N Shamseer and Deputy Speaker Chittayam Gopakumar.LDF legislators U Prathiba (Kayamkulam) and C K Asha (Vaikom), and UDF MLA K K Rema (Vadakara), were nominated to the panel of chairpersons to manage the Assembly session which began on Monday. They will be in charge of administering the proceedings of the male-dominated House until the session wraps up on December 15. It is a usual practice to form a three-member panel to control the proceedings in the absence of the Speaker and Deputy Speaker. The panel has two members from the ruling front and one from the opposition. However, this is the first time that all three panelists are women. Until now, of the 515 members who were part of different panels, only 32 were women. The idea for an all-woman panel was put forward by Shamseer and was welcomed by all parties. His nomination to the Speaker post by CPM had sparked concerns in both ruling and opposition camps regarding his performance, owing to his image as a firebrand leader. Meanwhile, the selection of RMP's Rema in the panel as the Opposition's representative came as a shock for the CPM, as she is a staunch critique of the party and CM Pinarayi Vijayan.

Anti-tobacco coalition for higher taxes

ENS @Bengaluru

THE Consortium for Tobacco Free Karnataka (CFTFK) and Karnataka No for Tobacco (KNOT), a coalition working on cancer prevention, youth protection and tobacco control, have urged Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman and Members of Parliament from Karnataka to hike the tax on all tobacco products in the upcoming Union budget.

In a letter to the minister on Monday, the coalition stressed that increasing the tax on tobacco products like cigarettes, bidis and chewing tobacco is needed to impose a cost burden on youths who are the main target of tobacco companies. The government has not hikes the tax on tobacco products ever since the Goods and Services Tax was implemented in 2017, they said adding that the present GST rates, combined with the compensation cess for all tobacco products, is far below the tax burden level of 75 per cent recommended by the World Health Organisation. The total tax burden is currently only about 53 per cent for cigarettes, 22 per cent for bidis and 60 per cent for smokeless tobacco.

BYPOLL DUTY COMES IN WAY OF CRITICAL ODISHA HOUSE BUSINESS

Eight. For that many days out of 33, the Odisha State Assembly conducted business in its winter session. The House convened on November 24 and ended 25 days ahead of the scheduled date. It adjourned sine die after passing the appropriation bill for the first supplementary budget for 2022–23. Expectedly, the Opposition was fuming. But the fleeting session is hardly surprising. Truncated sessions have become a pattern for the state legislature as meeting for the mandated 60 sitting days in a calendar year has become more of an aberration than a norm under the current regime.

In the last two decades, there have been only three years when the 60-day sitting mandate has been met. The Biju Janata Dal government often uses the defence of the absence of adequate legislative business leading to premature adjournment. However, the fact is that the House must remain in session to discuss and debate critical issues, which are at the core of the parliamentary process. But a shortened session was not the only issue of concern.

The winter session saw the government present the supplementary budget before the House, and something unprecedented happened on that day. Panchayati Raj Minister Pradip Kumar Amat—not Finance Minister Niranjan Pujari—tabled it because the latter was absent. Opposition parties were aghast and alleged that Pujari was busy electioneering for the Padampur bypoll. Pujari, interestingly, also happens to be the parliamentary affairs minister of the state. This meant one of the most important businesses of the session was conducted in the absence of the minister whose presence was critical from the legislative point of view and would have proved the BJD government meant business.

After Covid disrupted every sector and aspect of life in March 2020, this was the first time the State Assembly met physically and without any curbs. Alas, that, too, was short-lived, and it sent the message that the BJD government cares little for sound legislative practices. It was not further from the truth because most ministers and MLAs of the Naveen Patnaik government were campaigning in western Odisha, entrusted with bypoll duties when the House was in session. Legislators are bound by duty to participate in the House's discussions and debates for the very people who elect them. Elections are fought to be won, but legislative duties are of paramount interest and must come first.

TIME TO WATCH BIG BOYS AT PLAY IN QATAR

The mascot of the World Cup is bodiless and belongs to the mascot verse. It's called La'eeb, meaning a super-skilled player in Arabic. There is no explanation as to what it is, but according to FIFA, everyone is invited to interpret it their way. Its motif is to 'encourage everyone to believe in themselves as Now is all'. As the bandwagon of the greatest show on Earth edges past the halfway mark, the focus has definitely shifted to 'Now'. And that Now is only football. The political overtures, protests over human rights violations, homophobia, and charges of corruption with which the World Cup began, have slowly moved backstage. The incredible show during the group stages set the tone. No other edition can boast of so many upsets. Teams like Japan beating Germany and Spain, Saudi Arabia galloping past Argentina, Morocco's win over Belgium, Cameroon's triumph over Brazil (the first African country to do so in World Cup) and some very close matches, every game threatened to toss up surprises. In the end, football powerhouses Germany and Belgium had to bow out of the tournament.

The knockout stages, however, have turned more predictable, with big teams dominating as of Monday. As a result, some great matches are lined up for the quarterfinals—Argentina face the Netherlands, while France take on England. If teams' collective efforts have been the topic of discussion, there were instances of individual brilliance too. One man who dominated the discourse is Lionel Messi who can quietly walk into the superhuman realm. Ostensibly so, the World Cup has turned into Messi and what he does best—set up wins for Argentina when things seem difficult or hopeless. Those dribbles, shimmies and deft touches make Messi a living embodiment of all that is beautiful about the game and beyond.

The Asian teams—for the first time, three nations qualified for the knockouts—showed their mettle as well, with Japan holding the beacon with their dream run so far. It augurs well for Qatar, which will host the Asian Cup next year. And, of course, with such results and more consistency, Asia can ask for more than its allocated quota from FIFA. Football's ability to help people forget about strife was evident. With less than two weeks to go, the talk is all about Now football not just in Qatar but around the globe.

QUICK TAKE

POPULATION AND CONTROL

A committee of the Uttarakhand government to study the prospects of implementing the UCC claims receiving suggestions for couples to have a uniform number of children. That is a euphemism for a population control policy. If there is really a worry about exploding population, a Centre's report should calm the nerves as it says the country's TFR has fallen and population growth has slowed. That is not all. A children's norm can cause demographic contortions and hardly helps reduce fertility rates. It certainly violates women's personal liberty rights and can be prejudicial to the girl child in a patriarchal society.

This merger is a David and Goliath one. Vistara is the David that offers the best standards of quality. It merges with Air India which lost its mojo for a while

WITH BRAND REJIG MAHARAJAH GETS HIS MOJO BACK

HARISH BIJOOR

Brand Guru and Founder, Harish Bijoor Consults Inc

The aviation industry at large had a quiet announcement recently. The Tata group, which had acquired Air India in January 2022, will now manage its bouquet of airline brands differently. The full-service airline offering will be integrated under Air India, and Vistara will make a quiet exit by 2024-end. The low-cost variants will remain with AirAsia India in the kitty (along with possibly what was Air India Express), a segmented offering that will compete in the domestic low-cost and short-haul space. This brand rejig results in Air India emerging as the largest international carrier out of India and the second largest in the domestic sector, next only to IndiGo.

The aviation industry is a high-profile business. It has been so for decades all across the globe. This high-profile business is also a high-burn business. Globally, more airline enterprises have burned out than survived. In fact, every thriving survivor airline in the world has a gory story of its own—be it Delta, American or United—airlines from the largest airline market in the world, the United States of America.

Why the world? Look within India itself ever since the deregulation of the aviation space began in the early Nineties. We have many unique burnouts of our own—Damania, Modiluft, Jet, Air Sahara, Kingfisher and Air Deccan—to quote the big ones. And every burnout has a story that is high profile, high on passion, high on fight-value and high fuel prices to boot.

The business thought is simple. Most full-service airlines find it hard to survive in India. The market remains low-cost for now. Those that offer this seamlessly and continuously with aircraft configurations that fit the bill, survive. The others vanish.

If one looks around at numbers that come out, no airline in India is really making money, except for possibly IndiGo (which has had its own ups and downs). This is a sector that requires a dominant market share (more than 50% preferably) and a margin (even wafer-thin will do) to survive.

The large market share is necessary to justify the attendant costs of maintaining a slick fleet with a global standard of aircraft maintenance. And a slick fleet that is reliable and high on quality delivery is necessary. Any set of mishaps or averted mishaps tend to paint an airline in a bad light, enough to get people to switch off. Out here, the belief is clear. The bigger you are, the better you maintain your fleet, and the more seamless the safety process is.

Let me jump into the proposed avatar of Air India by 2024-end. As Air India makes its big plan to get its mojo back, it will be a joint venture with Singapore Airlines by design. The latter will hold 25.1%, and the rest will be with the Tatas. This simply means that the Tatas have a solid high-quality aviation partner with repute. While the operational control will remain with the Tatas, Singapore Airlines will chip in with the 'moolah' as well.

SOURAV ROY

The beauty of this holding pattern is the fact that Singapore Airlines is no newbie to the Tata aviation foray. It has been a JV partner (with a 49% holding in Vistara) for the last nine years since its inception. Singapore Airlines has therefore been through every up and down of Vistara, and understands not only the reality of the domestic market, but also the Tata style of management.

If Singapore Airlines has agreed to this investment for a long tenure yet again, it simply means that it is a complete thumbs-up to the relationship that has been. And this is a point of merit to Vistara and what it has achieved as a gold-standard airline brand in India today. An inheritor of the earlier legacy left behind by Jet Airways before all its troubles began.

The two groups we speak about behind Air India are really big and solid entities. At one end, you have the Tata group with a $128-billion revenue, and on the other, the Singapore Airlines group with a cash reserve that runs into double digit billions as reported variably.

Air India sure is an investment for both. For one, it is the passion and pride of India packed into an aviation business, and for the other, it is a quality and business investment in a market that is slated to grow substantially over the years. The current $900-million Indian aviation market has a storied potential growth to be a $4-billion market by 2025 as per recent projections. And that's a very, very large growth potential for anyone to ignore.

Practically speaking, Air India must then look outwards before it looks inwards. The market outside where it has a good presence is the one it might just want to widen and deepen, instead of trying to crack into the dominant-status market of IndiGo in India (59%), which is bound to be a slow-joy process.

The battle for AI is not the battle of AI versus IndiGo in the domestic market as much as it is the war of the full-service airline overseas with full-service airlines of every kind globally. And that's a big path to follow.

Once upon a time, AI was the gold-standard airline for overseas travel. It was the ultimate connect to and from India. And then things went south. Today, there certainly is the potential to get it all back. The Tata and Singapore Airlines combo seems the best bet duo to do it. And do it right. Let's wait and watch. Only time and thousands of flights on a firm business and flight path will tell.

On the brand front, there certainly is an issue to handle. Vistara built itself as a gold-standard airline offering in India. An airline is really a service brand. You are only as good as the service you offer. Vistara did it well. This merger is a David and Goliath merger. Vistara is the David that offers the best standards of quality. It merges with AI, which lost its mojo for a while. The David culture is a niche and the Goliath culture is the mass.

Campbell Wilson and the new AI management need to sort its act on how to manage this. How to get the niche service culture of a Vistara into the mass service culture of an AI. In a nation and industry where purge is never a recommendation to consider, how do you merge? How do you make the AI Maharajah dance to the tune of the Vistara model of service? And in that lies the secret of success.

As a final note, as many will rue the forthcoming demise of Vistara, the truth to consider is the fact that in running a business as hardcore as aviation, there is brand romance at one end and then there is brand reality at the other. Running just one brand in this space is a business reality. The Tatas have bitten into brand reality in this decision to bid goodbye to brand Vistara (for now).

DECIPHERING ELECTION WINDS AND FEELING THE BREEZE

C P SURENDRAN

Poet, novelist, and screenplay writer. His latest novel is One Love and the Many Lives of Osip B

This note is written from Thrissur, Kerala. It is December here, just as in any other place on Earth except in China, where the month is what Xi Jinping marks on his private calendar. It has been a curious day, though. Sunday (the day before) was the hottest day in a long time, and it felt like you were back in the middle of summer's cruel summer months.

Yet, on Monday morning, when you stepped out, the sky was gunmetal blue, and you could hear the wind rummaging through the leaves, though you failed, for the first few seconds, to feel its coolness on your skin. You had to turn around, hoping you would catch it in the face, and then suddenly, the breeze was on you, cool. The elections in Gujarat and Himachal Pradesh seem a bit like that. There seems to be a wind of change blowing, but you could not feel it, yet.

In Gujarat and Himachal Pradesh, urban voting numbers are down. The Election Commission on Saturday said the overall turnout was "diminished by urban apathy". Much the same has happened during the last few weeks in HP. For instance, the urban assembly seat of Shimla in Himachal Pradesh recorded the lowest turnout in the state at 62.53%, 13% points less than the state average of 75.6%.

In either state, the BJP is in power. In either state, they are predicted to return to power. In either state, the Congress is likely to improve its position. Perhaps, it was in anticipation of this outcome—not quite triumphant, but still hopeful of its future—that last week, Rahul Gandhi and his friends, Ashok Gehlot, Sachin Pilot, and Kamal Nath, sank their differences, smiled painfully, and jived on a stage in Jhalawar in Rajasthan.

I am wary of predictions, especially the ones I make. But I was one of the first to have pointed out the need for Rahul Gandhi to break out of the Delhi cabal politics and to take the fight to rural India. This was three years ago. Now that Rahul Gandhi is doing it, the air does show some disturbance.

One of the reasons for Rahul Gandhi to go on his epic walk besides escaping the five-star urban politics of Delhi is that urbanites have reached a point of fatigue in their political fervour. For various reasons, including fear of reprisal. In any case, there is only so much you can talk about and agitate each other over tea and, in this fashion, celebrate what they take to be responsible citizens. But sooner or later, their need to protect what they have, a way of life, let's say, and the law of diminishing returns must make them simmer down and subside. There is just too much at stake.

PTI

> Smriti Irani winning the Amethi seat from Rahul Gandhi in 2019 is conclusive proof of the gap widening the maximum between the Congress Party's leadership and the peanut-crunching crowd, as Sylvia Plath put it in another context. It is this gap that Rahul Gandhi is addressing

Not so rural India. There, the state of discomfort is so high from absences: of drinking water, schools, medical facilities, and jobs. They must aspire actively for change. Equally important, the constant white noise generated by social media is less at play, minimising the risk of replacement of the real with the virtual. The option of vicariousness, of venting and fame-seeking, as a substitute for the strife for deeper satisfactions or changes, is yet to permeate the reality of rural life with any measure of dominance.

This is possibly why we see a decline in numbers in urban voting compared to rural India—as was the case in the last three general elections. The BJP's success in the 2014 and 2019 elections was largely due to their cadre work in the villages. It makes sense to believe that this coincided with the urbanisation of the Congress Party. Both rank and file of the party lost touch with ground realities. Smriti Irani winning the Amethi seat from Rahul Gandhi in 2019 is conclusive proof of the gap widening the maximum between that party's leadership and the peanut-crunching crowd, as Sylvia Plath put it in another context. It is this gap Rahul Gandhi is addressing.

But with a certain curious if wilful oversight in strategy. In the last two months or so, Rahul Gandhi might have taken a break—he did it when Mallikarjun Kharge was elected AICC president; he attended a reception in Delhi for the new leader—to campaign for the Congress in Himachal Pradesh or Gujarat.

One could argue HP is far from the terrain his walk is covering. But that argument does not cut ice with Gujarat. He was already in Maharashtra or central India and not so far from Gujarat.

Indeed, as he covers Rajasthan (Jhalawar, Alwar, Kota, Dausa) this week, he has carefully avoided neighbouring Gujarat altogether. What can it mean but the fact that he does not want a confrontation with the BJP in one of its strongholds? Unless he is throwing the gauntlet to his party satraps: win this election and show me what you can do on your own. Is this a good idea? I believe so.

Rahul Gandhi has learned to lose his naivete. This walk is more than jodo-ing India. He is uniting the Indian National Congress. Under him.

Both in Gujarat and Himachal Pradesh, the BJP will return to power. But the chances are that their representational strength will see a decline from their present numbers (110 out of 182 in Gujarat, and 45 out of 68 in HP), though Prime Minister Narendra Modi has repeatedly been saying that his party will return to power in these states in greater numbers. He would be wrong. Like this morning, there certainly seems to be a wind picking up, and the leaves are shaking. You may have to wait a while in it, though, to feel the breeze on your skin.

Happiness and India

Apropos of Bibek Debroy's Much to be unhappy about in growth times (Dec 5). Happiness should be a parameter in politics, where the last man in the spectrum also gets some attention. Instead of cars and high-end gadgets as metrics, we should also measure in terms of trees and the environment. As we navigate in a growing economy, hopefully the country will accept per capita happiness.
Varughese Cherukattu Thomas, Thiruvalla

Dreams, destiny and science

Apropos of Dreams, nightmares and dark patches of the mind (Dec 5). Science can't define dreams and nightmares despite advances in neurology. As per our Indic culture, dreams and nightmares are consequences of positive and negative happenings in the times to come. And that was aptly illustrated by the columnist through appropriate quotes from the Ramayana.
Venkat Desikan, Chennai

Prisoners and politics

Apropos of the quick take, Uniform prisoner release rules (Dec 5). Both cases: parole to Ram Rahim, and release of Bilkis Bano case convicts, are clearly political acts by respective state governments for electoral gains. However, since the cases are sub judice in the Supreme Court under PILs against their release, it's reasonable to wait for the verdict.
K Nehru Patnaik, Visakhapatnam

Kharge's rules

Apropos of Kharge talks tough, asks leaders to perform or make way for new faces (Dec 5). His ask is surprising. The Gandhis were never held accountable for successive defeats in state elections. Accountability is an example that leaders must set. Kharge should step out of the Gandhis' shadow to enforce discipline.

Tharoor's thunder

One fails to understand why Shashi Tharoor is looked at with suspicion by the Kerala leaders when all he is doing is garnering support for the Congress. Many fear he may steal the thunder from them. We should not forget that Tharoor is basically a diplomat by nature and not a regular politician.

Temple vs technology

The Madras HC banning the use of mobile phones in temples is most welcome. People visit temples to pray. Although today's world demands some amount of multitasking, temples are not commercial spaces. Temple administrations should take this seriously and make it compulsory.

'Govt working towards net-zero emission'

India set to meet target of 50% energy requirements with renewable sources: Union minister Ashwini Kumar Choubey

BY 2070, India will achieve the goal of net-zero emissions as works are going on in the right direction, says Ashwini Kumar Choubey, Union Minister of State for the Ministry of Consumer Affairs, Food and Public Distribution and Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change. In an interview with Rajesh Kumar Thakur, Choubey says India has successfully maintained food security for the weaker sections and provided affordable food grains to the common man even when the world was grappling with the adverse effects of the Covid-19 pandemic. Excerpts:

How is India prepared to meet the challenges of climate change?
The Centre is not only aware of the challenges but is also working actively. India has also emerged as a leader in climate justice. First proposed by Prime Minister Narendra Modi at COP26 in Glasgow, 'Mission Life' was envisioned as an India-led global mass movement that will spur individual and collective action to protect and preserve the environment. India will reach its non-fossil energy capacity of 500 GW (one gigawatt is enough energy to power about 750,000 homes) by 2030. India will meet 50% of its energy requirements with renewable energy by 2030.

India will also reduce its total projected carbon emissions by one billion tonnes between now and 2030. By 2030, India will reduce the carbon intensity of its economy by more than 45%. By 2070, India will achieve the goal of net zero emissions.

Verbatim

How is the government moving to achieve the long-term target?
The Union Cabinet recently approved India's updated Nationally Determined Contributions (NDCs) and informed the UN Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) about it. It aims to achieve net-zero climate change by 2070. India is committed to reducing the emission intensity of its GDP by 45% by 2030. The PM's vision of a people's movement for

Ashwini Kumar Choubey, Union minister

LIFE (Lifestyle for the Environment) is the key factor in combating climate change, which is gaining momentum on the ground.

How did India perform on the food distribution front during the Covid-induced lockdown?
The world's largest free-ration distribution scheme, Pradhan Mantri Garib Kalyan Anna Yojna, was started keeping in mind the people's problems during the lockdown. As many as 80 crore people are regularly getting its benefits, a feat praised by the World Food Organization. The 7th phase of Pradhan Mantri Garib Kalyan Anna Yojna is going on.

India has successfully demonstrated its capabilities in maintaining food security. Steps have also been taken to maintain it continuously.

It is alleged that corruption has its roots in FCI sectors. How is your ministry tackling this?
We have a policy of zero tolerance for corruption. As per the need of the hour, deficiencies/problems in the entire supply chain and warehousing of the corporation are being rectified by using technology. Under end-to-end computerization, supply chain automation has been done in 31 states/UTs so far.

More than 99% of ration cards across the country have been seeded with Aadhaar, with about 5.32 lakh FPS (fair price shops) out of a total of 5.33 lakh being automated so far. States/UTs have so far reported cumulative cancellation/weeding of about 4.74 crore ineligible ration cards during 2013-2021.

Since you are from Bihar, what's your party's strategy to take on the RJD-JD-U grand alliance government?
It is a grand alliance of vested interests. Ever since the alliance came to power, there has been an increase in murder, robbery, dacoity, and crimes against women in Bihar. Jungle Raj-II is going on in Bihar. People are with BJP, they will oust the grand alliance in the 2024 Lok Sabha and 2025 assembly polls.

The opposition, especially the Congress, is predicting the ouster of PM Modi-led BJP from power in the 2024 elections...
The opposition is daydreaming.

Do you see AAP as an emerging challenger to BJP?
Not at all. The AAP has no mass base. AAP's true face and character have come before the public. AAP is involved in corruption.

MOVING FROM COLONIALISM

'Satyamev Jayate': Prez Murmu approves new design of Naval Ensign

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

MOVING forward with the ongoing national endeavour to shun the colonial past, President of India Droupadi Murmu gave the approval for the introduction of a new design for the President's Standard and Colour and Indian Navy Crest for the Indian Navy and the same were unveiled at Visakhapatnam on Navy Day on December 4.

The Indian Navy on Monday said, "The Naval Ensign was amended to a new design that draws inspiration from our history wherein the Red Horizontal and Vertical Lines on the White Ensign were replaced with an Blue Octagon with Twin Golden Borders encompassing the National Emblem atop a clear anchor and 'National Emblem 'Satyamev Jayate' inscribed on the stock of the Anchor. Further, the National Flag was retained on the upper left canton."

The erstwhile design of the President's Standard and Colour for the Indian Navy was instituted on Sep 6, 2017. The design comprised one each horizontal and vertical red band intersecting at the centre and the National Emblem inserted at their intersection. The National Flag was at the upper left canton adjacent to the staff and a Golden Elephant was at the lower right canton on the fly side.

This design was inspired from the erstwhile Naval Ensign. The President's Standard and President's Colour are awarded to static and mobile formations of the Indian Navy respectively, to acknowledge their distinguished and meritorious service to the Nation.

The Indian Navy adopted a new Naval Ensign on September 2, 2022, and the new design of the President's Standard and President's Colour awarded to the Indian Navy incorporates this change.

The new design of the President's Standard and Colour comprises three main constituents — the National Flag in the upper left canton adjacent to the staff, the State Emblem underscribed with 'Satyamev Jayate' in Golden Colour on the upper right canton on the fly side, and a Navy Blue — Gold Octagon below the Golden State Emblem. The Octagon has twin golden octagonal borders, encompassing the golden National Emblem (Lion Capital of Ashoka — underscribed with 'Satyamev Jayate' in blue Devnagri script) resting atop an anchor; and superimposed on a shield.

Charity can't be for conversion purpose, says SC

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ Chennai

TERMING conversion to another religion through force and allurement as dangerous, the Supreme Court on Monday said that charity cannot be for the purpose of conversion.

"Every charity, good work is welcome, but purpose of charity cannot be conversion. If you believe that particular persons are to be helped, help them. It cant be for conversion but what is required to be considered is intention," a bench of Justices MR Shah and CT Ravikumar remarked.

Calling forced religious conversion a "serious issue" and against the basic structure of the Constitution, the bench also said, "When everyone stays in India they're required to act as per culture & harmony of India. Propagate charity help everything is welcome but it shouldn't be for converting a person."

Rejecting objections regarding maintainability of plea filed by BJP leader Ashwini Upadhyay seeking to undertake stringent steps for controlling fraudulent religious conversions, the bench asked centre to file detailed affidavit after obtaining information from states on anti conversion laws and other relevant information.

Upadhyay's plea had also sought to declare religious conversion by fraud, intimidation, threat and deceiving by luring gifts and monetary benefits as violative of fundamental rights. Earlier during this week, Gujarat government had told the SC that state has passed Gujarat Freedom of Religion Act, 2003 and Gujarat Freedom of Religion (Amendment) Act, 2021 to prevent fraudulent conversion. Justifying the requirement to seek DM's permission under section 5 of the 2003 Act, the state has stated that exercise of taking prior permission also obviates the forcible conversion and protects the "freedom of conscience" guaranteed to all the citizens of the Country.

"Right to freedom of religion does not include a fundamental right to convert other people to a particular religion. The said right certainly does not include the right to convert an individual through fraud, deception, coercion, allurement or other such means," the affidavit stated.

When everyone stays in India they're required to act as per culture & harmony of India. Propagate charity help everything is welcome but it shouldn't be for converting a person

SC to hear plea on closure of CBI probe into disproportionate asset case against Yadavs

The Supreme Court said on Monday that it will hear the submissions on whether the petitioner can be given the copy of a CBI report on closure of its preliminary enquiry into allegations of amassing disproportionate assets against former Uttar Pradesh Chief Ministers Mulayam Singh Yadav and his son Akhilesh Yadav. The CBI had told the apex court in 2019 that since "no prima facie evidence" of commission of a cognisable offence was found against Mulayam and his two sons — Akhilesh and Prateek — the Preliminary Enquiry (PE) was not converted into a criminal case/FIR, and as such, no enquiry was conducted in the matter after August 7, 2013. A bench comprising Chief Justice D Y Chandrachud and Justice P S Narasimha took note of Mulayam Singh Yadav's death and that the CBI has decided not to proceed.

SC raps Punjab govt over drug & liquor menace

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

TERMING the issue of rampant sale of spurious liquor as "serious", the SC on Monday said that unbridled flow of drugs and liquor will "finish off" the youth of the border State of Punjab and then the entire country. "We want to stop all these illegal things. Punjab is also border state. If someone wants to finish the country and more particularly the border state, this will happen so every extra caution should be taken to save the country. It is very easy to finish the youth and finish the country by drugs by this by everything," a bench of Justices MR Shah and CT Ravikumar remarked.

Pulling up the state government for its failure to take stringent action and only registering 34 K FIRs, the bench also said, "Over 34,000 FIRs have been registered in two years... but only FIRs are filed. What about charge-sheets? Illegal liquor and its transportation have to be curbed. It has to be stopped. Tell your government to be very serious.

BOOK DETAILS 'GRAFT' IN RAFALE DEAL

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

IN a discussion on the book titled The Rafale Deal: Flying Lies, N Ram, former editor-in-chief, the Hindu Group of Publications, highlighted that corruption in arms deals is of a different league. Ram said, "It's in a league of its own. It's inescapable. There are very few exceptions."

The book, written by independent journalists Ravi Nair and Paranjoy Guha Thakurta, is on the procurement of the 4.5 Generation Medium Multi Role Combat Aircraft (MMRCA) Rafale deal, under which India was to procure 126 aircraft but it was changed to 36 in 2015 by the present NDA government. An inter-governmental agreement (IGA) was signed formally by India and France on January 25, 2016, with a deal worth around ₹58,000 crore.

Paranjoy made it clear that all the material used in the book is open source and is publicly available. The participants for discussion also included academic Professor Srinath Raghavan, Aakaar Patel, former head of Amnesty International, India, activist Kavita Krishnan, senior lawyers Prashant Bhushan and Sanjay Hegde, and journalist Col. Ajai Shukla.

Ram quoted that at least 40% of all corruption in legal international trade happens in arms deals.

Long Covid signs in kids change over time: Lancet

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

SYMPTOMS of long Covid experienced by children and young people may change over time, according to the largest study published in The Lancet Regional Health — Europe.

For the study, researchers asked children aged 11 to 17 years about their health six months and 12 months after taking a PCR test between September 2020 and March 2021. They also asked them to recall their symptoms at the time of taking the test.

They noted that the symptoms experienced changed over the course of a year. And while some of the children's original symptoms declined, new symptoms were reported.

The data of 5,086 children, 2,909 of whom tested positive for Covid-19, and 2,177 of whom tested negative were examined. None of the children initially invited to participate in the study had been hospitalised.

Children and young people were asked what they had experienced from a list of 21 symptoms, including shortness of breath and tiredness, as well as using validated scales to assess quality of life, mental health, wellbeing and fatigue.

It was found that, at time of testing, health issues were more common in children and young people who had tested positive for the virus compared to those who tested negative.

Leaders busy in Yatra, Cong braces to keep Parl floor management in sync

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

THE absence of former Congress president Rahul Gandhi and other top leaders would not affect the party's floor management or strategies in the upcoming winter session of the Parliament, said Congress MP and Lok Sabha chief whip Kodikunnil Suresh. The winter session of the Parliament will commence on December 7 (tomorrow) and will continue till December 29. It will have 17 sittings spread over 23 days. The Lok Sabha MP also said that the party's strategy will be to intervene positively and avoid disruptions to ensure the smooth functioning of the House. The party will also try to reach a consensus with its allies on the issue of reservation for economically weaker sections (EWS) before discussing it in the House, he said.

Besides Gandhi, Congress' Rajya Sabha chief whip Jairam Ramesh and senior leader Digvijaya Singh too, will be mostly away from the winter session on account of the Bharat Jodo Yatra which entered Rajasthan on Monday. Deputy Leader of Congress in the Lok Sabha Gaurav Gogoi told this paper that he will be joining the winter session only in the second week of December as he is leading a 'yatra' in his home state Assam.

Speaking to this newspaper, Suresh said that the absence of Rahul Gandhi and other leaders wouldn't be felt much as Lok Sabha floor leader Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury and other senior leaders Manish Tewari and himself will be handling the floor management, debates, and coordination with other opposition parties.

In RS too, party whips Naseer Hussain and Chaya Verma will pitch in for Leader of Opposition Mallikarjun Kharge, he said. Rajya Sabha chief whip Jairam Ramesh may also give the winter session a miss for Bharat Jodo Yatra. "MPs Rajeev Shukla and Pramod Tiwari will also help Kharge with floor management and coordination," said Suresh. Congress has decided to continue with Kharge as the LoP till the winter session of the Parliament, said the leader adding that a new leader will be chosen in the Plenary session in February. The party wants to avoid a washed-out session, he said. "We will not disrupt or stall the House unless it's very critical," he added.

The top brass of the party, in a meeting last week, decided to corner the government on three main issues — rising inflation, the border standoff with China, and the weakening of constitutional institutions. The party said that it will also ask the government to rethink the issue of EWS.

It's battle between SP & BJP in UP

UP by-election: Moderate voter turnout in Mainpuri & Khatauli, sluggish in Rampur

NAMITA BAJPAI @Lucknow

WHILE moderate voting percentage at 51.89 % and 54.50 % was registered during the bypoll to Mainpuri Lok Sabha and Khatauli Assembly seat respectively, polling was sluggish in Rampur Sadar assembly segment, where only 31.22% voters had turned up to cast vote till 5 pm on Monday.

Polling had taken off at 7 am on Monday. The bypoll in Mainpuri LS seat was necessitated after the demise of sitting Samajwadi Party MP Mulayam Singh Yadav. The bypoll in Rampur Sadar and Khatauli Assembly segments resulted from the disqualification of sitting MLAs Mohammad Azam Khan of SP and Vikram Saini of BJP due to their conviction, respectively.

While Azam Khan has been convicted and sentenced to three-year jail term in a hate speech case of 2019, Saini has been convicted and got two-year jail term in Muzaffarnagar riots case of 2013.

The bypoll to three seats in UP has been a straight contest between the BJP and Samajwadi Party as the two main contenders. The BSP and Congress had decided to keep away from the bypoll.

However, during the voting on Monday, both the contenders accused each other of disrupting the electoral process. Akhilesh Yadav accused the BJP government of misusing the official machinery. He alleged that the Rampur administration and the police were not allowing people to come out and vote.

57.90% voter turnout in bypoll to Bihar's assembly seat

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

OVERALL 57.90% voter turnout was recorded in Bihar's Kurhani assembly seat where by-election was held on Monday. The bypoll to the seat was held following disqualification of sitting RJD MLA Anil Kumar Sahni after being convicted in a forgery case.

In the 2020 assembly election, 64.19% polling was recorded. However, the polling percentage reduced to 57.90% in the bypoll held after only two years. The political analysts, however, described it good in the sense that voters usually remained reluctant in the election.

"The result of the bypoll will make no difference. It is not going to affect the ruling alliance in the state. But political parties may describe the election results in their own terms to boost the morale of their voters and supporters," a political analyst Pramod Kumar said. According to the election commission, polling was held at 320 polling booths between 7 am and 6 pm amid tight security arrangements. A total of 3,11,003 electorate exercised their franchise. Of them 1,64479 were men and 1,46,518 women and six third gender.

Peaceful vote in Maoist-hit Chhattisgarh constituency

EJAZ KAISER @Raipur

THE by-poll in Bhanupratappur was peaceful with voter turnout recording at 72%, which is lower than the previous two Assembly polls in 2013 (79.23 %) and 2018 (77.25%). The poll-battle was a bipolar contest between the Congress and the BJP.

Polling began at 7 am amid tight security and concluded at 3 pm. No untoward incident was reported in the constituency during the polling process which was by and large peaceful, the official said.

Seven candidates contested the bypoll in the constituency, reserved for the Scheduled Tribes.

Meanwhile, in a high voltage drama, the Jharkhand police after the voting in Bhanupratapur Assembly by-poll took the 2019 POCSO accused BJP candidate Bhramanand Netam in their custody in Kanker district, south Chhattisgarh, but later released him after the protesting BJP cadres cited the high court order on restraining the arrest on Monday. During the bypoll campaign, Netam's name had surfaced after the ruling Congress played up the FIR lodged against him.

High turnout in tribal areas in Guj final phase voting

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @ Ahmedabad

THE second and final phase of Gujarat Assembly polls for 93 constituencies out of the total 182 recorded a voter turnout of around 58.80, which could be revised upwards.

The highest voting percentage was reported from tribal-dominated constituencies with a turnout at Sabarkantha 65.84%, followed by Banaskantha 65.65%, Kheda 62.65%. The lowest turnout was reported from Ahmedabad 53.57%, followed by Mahisagar 54.26% Vadodara 58%, Dahod 55.80%.

The Bharatiya Janata Party and AAP are contesting all 93 seats. Out of 93 seats, 74 general seats, 06 Scheduled Caste,13 Scheduled Tribes, the Congress is contesting 90 seats, and its partner, the NCP, has fielded candidates in two seats. The political fate of 833 candidates is sealed for second phase of voting. At least 764 male candidates 69 women candidates contested.

Among big politicians who voted early on Monday morning were Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Gujarat Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel, Union Home Minister Amit Shah, Uttar Pradesh Governor, and Gujarat former CM Anandi Ben Patel. The PM cast his vote at a polling station set up at a Nishan High School in Ranip locality of Ahmedabad in Gujarat and said the state's people listen to everybody, but it is their nature to accept what is true. He also congratulated the Election Commission for conducting the polls in a "spectacular manner" and raising the prestige of India's democracy worldwide.

The PM said "For the celebration of democracy, I heartily congratulate the citizens of the country and greet them. I also heartily congratulate the Election Commission. It has developed a great tradition of conducting elections in a very spectacular manner, increasing the prestige of India's democracy in the whole world."

The Kolkata Municipal Corporation (KMC) has announced to cancel license of all hookah bars in the city and not to issue any fresh licence for the same. A senior official of the KMC said police raided several hookah bars on tip-offs about violation of rules and arrested employees and guards.

Cash stuffed in SUV tyre seized in Bengal, Mamata alleges BJP conspiracy

PRANAB MANDAL @ Kolkata

HOURS before leaving for Delhi to attend Prime Minister Narendra Modi's G20 meet, Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee hit out at the BJP after ₹94 lakh was found stuffed in the stepney (spare tyre) of a Guwahati-bound vehicle in Jalpaiguri district on Monday.

"Money, hooligans and arms are being transported for the BJP. I would like to request the BJP to take care of it. Let us fight politically," she said.

Police intercepted a vehicle in which five persons were travelling in a SUV with registration number issued by Bihar transport authorities and found cash of ₹94.38 lakh.

"We had a specific tip off about transportation of the cash. A check-post was in place at Banarhat and we were checking all the suspected vehicles. We intercepted the SUV and started searching the vehicle.

Initially, nothing was found. We picked up the spare tyre and realised its weight was abnormal. We decided to engage a mechanic to open the tyre," said Biswajit Mahato, the superintendent of police, Jalpaiguri district. The police said the stepney was stashed with 94 bundles of currency notes in denominations of ₹500 and R₹200.

Why not a total ban on caste rallies?

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

THE Lucknow bench of Allahabad High Court has issued fresh notices to the four major mainstream political parties of Uttar Pradesh seeking their response as to why there should not be 'a complete ban forever on caste-based rallies' in the state.

The court also asked the political outfits as to why the Election Commission of India (ECI) should not take action against those found organising such rallies. In its order, the court issued notice to the Chief Election Commissioner to respond on the issue and posted the matter on December 15 as the next date of hearing.

The fresh notices came from the high court after no action was taken on its interim order passed nine years ago.

A local lawyer Motilal Yadav had sought a ban on the caste-based rallies in Uttar Pradesh.

Rahul says RSS 'anti-women', finds fault with BJP's 'Jai Sri Ram' slogan

RAJESH ASNANI @ Jaipur

ON the 89th day of the Bharat Jodo Yatra, Rahul Gandhi finally started his journey in Congress-ruled Rajasthan. On his yatra, Rahul turned aggressive and took BJP and RSS on the task on a variety of issues. Rahul alleged that RSS has an anti-women attitude, which reflects in the 'Jai Sri Ram'. Meanwhile targeting the Congress, BJP has alleged that ₹500 crore are being spent for the fifth time on the relaunching of Rahul Gandhi.

In the second phase, the yatra reached Chandrabhaga square of Jhalrapatan town in the evening. Addressing a Nukkad Sabha, Rahul slammed the RSS for 'Jai Sri Ram' slogan and advocated the need for 'Jai Siya Ram' slogan, which is the true tradition. There can be no Ram without Sita, without Sita there can be no Ram and without Ram Sita is no mother. This is something that RSS needs to learn."

Rahul asserted that RSS will have to speak the 'Jai Siya Ram' slogan and questioned why they have problems with the traditional slogan.

He also claimed that the central government now works only for the rich and against the interest of workers and farmers of the country.

On Monday, Rahul started the yatra from Kali Talai in Jhalawar at around 6 in the morning. As Rahul covered 34 km on the first day of his yatra in the desert state, all camps of the state Congress were seen together in the yatra. Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot, former Deputy CM Sachin Pilot, and Congress state president Govind Dotasara were seen walking along with many ministers, MLAs, and common people.

No change in Russian oil buy, says govt

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

ON a day the G7-European Union price cap of $60 a barrel of Russian oil moving by sea kicked in, External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar indicated India was firm in its policy on sourcing oil from Russia.

Showing Europe the mirror, Jaishankar pointed out that since February 24 — the day the Ukraine war began — till November 17, the European Union had imported more fossil fuel from Russia than the next 10 countries combined.

"We need to establish the fact that the oil imports of EU are six times that of what India imports. We need to have an understanding that oil is a finite energy solution. A lot of countries from Europe have turned to Middle East for their fuel as a result of which their prices have shot up. This puts a pressure on India and we need to buy from wherever it is viable," Jaishankar said on Monday, after signing a Comprehensive Migration and Mobility Partnership Agreement with his German counterpart, Annalena Baerbock.

He also suggested a reality check by looking at the Russian fossil tracker website, which would give clarity on the countries that continue to import oil from Russia whilst urging others not to do so. He reiterated that India stands for peace and wants the war to end through talks and negotiations.

Man chops up woman's body in Bhagalpur

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

IN a shockingly similar case to the Shraddha Walker murder in Mehrauli, Delhi, a 45-year-old woman was killed and her body parts chopped off near a bridge in Pirpaniti, Bhagalpur district in Bihar, on Sunday.

The woman's breast, hands, feet and ears were cut off with a sharp-edged weapon. The accused along with his accomplice also made an attempt to cut her leg as well, but they fled in fear of getting caught. When the local people found the woman in a pool of blood, they informed the police and she was rushed to Jawaharlal Nehru Medical College where she succumbed to her injuries. Doctors attributed her death to the excessive bleeding.

Both the accused and victim are from different communities. Police said that the woman had borrowed some money from the main accused, Shakeel, and was refusing to return.

Dogs found sleeping on beds in MP govt hospital, video goes viral

AUNRAAG SINGH @ Bhopal

DAYS after a viral video showed a cow strolling and feeding on medical waste at the intensive care unit (ICU) of the Rajgarh district hospital, a new video of stray dogs having a field day on patients' beds of a health centre in Jabalpur district has gone viral.

While two stray dogs can be seen sleeping and comforting on beds meant for patients at the Shahpura community health centre (CHC), another viral video of the same key government health facility shows pathetic state of cleanliness and sanitation near the operation theatre (OT) further narrates the state of affairs there.

The twin videos were possibly shot by Shahpura (Jabalpur) resident Siddharth Jain, who had gone to the same CHC for a medical check up of pregnant wife, but remained shocked to find the canines comforting on empty patients' beds and pathetic state of cleanliness and sanitation.

Besides these shocking scenes, all Jain could find was just one nurse on duty and no doctor or other paramedical or security staff on duty.

Meanwhile, the Jabalpur district administration has taken cognisance of the matter after the twin videos went viral.

"The Block Medical Officer (BMO) Dr CK Atraulia has been showcaused and asked to reply within 24 hours. Based on his reply, action will ensue. We've seven CHCs in Jabalpur district, but the incident has been reported from one of them, which means that the monitoring authority (the BMO) isn't monitoring the affairs adequately; otherwise such repeated mess wouldn't have been reported from there. There are sufficient staff there, but still if such mess is prevailing then the BMO owes a reply. If the reply is found unsatisfactory, suitable action will be taken," Jabalpur district chief medical and health officer Dr Sanjay Mishra said on Monday.

Earlier, in September, a video of a dog sleeping on a hospital bed in Ratlam in Madhya Pradesh went viral on social media, inviting criticism from the opposition Congress.

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

THE three-time former J&K chief minister Farooq Abdullah, who was on Monday re-elected as president of National Conference, said boycotting 2018 panchayat and municipal polls by the party was a big mistake and warned security forces and administration not to interfere in the polls saying "the interference will trigger a storm".

Abdullah, 85, was unanimously elected as NC president today at the party's delegate session held near the mausoleum of party founder and former J&K chief minister Sheikh Mohammad Abdullah at Naseem Bagh, Hazratbal in Srinagar. The day marked the 117th birth anniversary of Sheikh Abdullah. Abdullah had recently stepped down as party president but was asked to continue till the party presidential polls were held.

Moscow blames Kyiv for explosions at airbases

Russian defence ministry says blasts caused by debris of Ukrainian drones shot down by its forces; three soliders killed, four injured

MOSCOW

THE Russian defence ministry said Ukrainian drone attacks caused explosions at two airfields in the Saratov and Ryazan regions on Monday, leaving three dead.

On Monday morning "the Kyiv regime attempted to strike the Dyagilevo airfield in the Ryazan region, and the Engels airfield in the Saratov region, with Soviet-made drones," the ministry said in a statement, adding that three soldiers had been killed.

The drones aiming to "disrupt Russian long-range aircraft" were intercepted, the ministry said, but debris fell and exploded on the airfields.

Four other soldiers were wounded and taken to medical facilities.

Two planes were slightly damaged, according to the statement.

Russian President Vladimir Putin was briefed about the incidents, Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov said earlier on Monday.

"From all relevant services, the president regularly receives information about everything that happens," Peskov added, declining to provide further details.

Ukrainian authorities did not comment on the blasts.

However, President Volodymyr Zelenskyy's top adviser Mykhaylo Podolyak tweeted soon after the attack: "If something is launched into [an]other countries' airspace, sooner or later unknown flying objects will return to departure point."

Ukraine was targeted on Monday by a new wave of fatal Russian missiles, the latest attack to disrupt power across the country and pile pressure on its embattled critical infrastructure as temperatures plunge.

The attacks came just after Moscow shrugged off a Western-imposed price cap on its oil exports, warning that the move would not disrupt its military campaign in Ukraine. Russian state-run media at the same time released footage of President Vladimir Putin driving a Mercedes car across the Crimea bridge that connects the annexed peninsula to the Russian mainland and was damaged in blast last month.

The head of the central Zaporizhzhia region, Oleksandr Starukh, said that Russian missiles had left two people dead. Officials in regions in the east and south announced disruptions to water, electrical and heating services. "There are already strikes on energy infrastructure facilities and subsequently emergency power outages," the national electricity provider Ukrenergo said in a statement.

Officials in the eastern region of Sumy and the southern regions of Odessa and Mykolaiv said residents were being subjected to disruptions in water, power or heating supplies as a result of the strikes.

Nearly half the country's energy system has been damaged after months of systemic strikes on power infrastructure. Ukrainians have frequently been left in the cold and dark for hours at a time when the outdoor temperature has dropped below zero.

"Charge power banks. Prepare reserves of water," said the head of Kryvyi Rig military administration, Oleksandr Vilkul. The $60-per-barrel price cap agreed by the EU, G7 and Australia aims to restrict Russia's revenue while making sure Moscow keeps supplying the global market. AFP

No sign of Iran improving treatment of women: US

WASHINGTON

THE United States on Monday said "nothing suggests" Iran is improving the treatment of women following reports Tehran was scrapping its notorious morality police after months-long protests.

"We have seen the reports but will not comment on ambiguous or vague claims by Iranian officials," a State Department spokesperson said. "Sadly, nothing we have seen suggests Iran's leadership is improving its treatment of women and girls or ceasing the violence it inflicts on peaceful protesters."

Washington has hit out at Iran over its women's rights record and a crackdown by authorities on the protests.

Iran has executed more than 500 people so far in 2022, far more than in the whole of last year, a rights group said.

In early November, Vice President Kamala Harris said the United States would work with other nations to oust Iran from the United Nations Commission on the Status of Women .

Norway-based group Iran Human Rights said at least 504 people had now been executed in Iran this year and that it was still working to confirm additional cases of people said to have been hanged.

The figure comes as concern grows that the authorities will make extensive use of the death penalty against people involved in the anti-regime protests that have erupted in Iran since September. IHR's count includes four people who official media said were put to death on Sunday accused of working with Israel's intelligence service.

The rights group said they were executed in Rajai Shahr prison in Karaj outside Tehran — also known as Gohardasht — within just seven months of arrest. Agencies

Saudi crown prince may invest in Credit Suisse spin-off

ZURICH

Saudi Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman is considering investing around $500 million in a new Credit Suisse investment bank spin-off, CS First Boston, according to The Wall Street Journal.

Citing unnamed sources familiar with the matter, the US financial newspaper listed several potential investors in the new unit. In addition to the Saudi crown prince, the potential investors include Atlas Merchant Capital, a private-equity firm run by British banking giant Barclays' former chief Bob Diamond, which was also considering pumping $500 million into the unit, according to the sources quoted by WSJ.

Credit Suisse itself has previously said it had $500 million committed from an unnamed investor, and its chairman said last week that it has other firm commitments, the daily reported on Sunday. The bank has yet to receive a formal proposal from the Saudi entity, WSJ's sources said.

Credit Suisse unveiled a dramatic restructuring plan at the end of October, focused on radically transforming its investment banking unit, at the heart of a string of scandals. Among the changes, it decided to revive its First Boston brand, named after an US investment bank it absorbed in 1990, where its capital market and advisory activities will be brought together.

Switzerland's second largest bank is raising $4.2 billion in new stock as part of that restructuring, which will separately make the Saudi National Bank its largest shareholder.

It now owns 9.9% of the Credit Suisse group. WSJ said it remained unclear whether Prince Mohammed aimed to make his investment through that bank or through "another investment vehicle". AFP

IS terrorist arrested over Pak embassy attack

ISLAMABAD

A member of the militant Islamic State group has been arrested in last week's shooting attack targeting the Pakistani Embassy in Afghanistan's capital of Kabul, the spokesman of the Taliban government said.

The attack, in which shots were fired at the embassy from a nearby building, triggered anger in Pakistan, and increased tensions between the two South Asian neighbours.

Pakistan's top diplomat in Kabul was walking across the lawn inside the embassy compound at the time of the attack. He was unharmed but one of his Pakistani guards was wounded.

The regional affiliate of the Islamic State group, known as the Islamic State in Khorasan Province and a rival of Afghanistan's ruling Taliban, has claimed responsibility for Friday's attack.

The Islamic State group said two of its fighters attacked 'the renegade Pakistani ambassador and his guards' while they were inside the embassy's yard. The statement gave no further details. The chief spokesman for the Taliban government, Zabihullah Mujahid, announced the arrest of a suspect in a tweet Monday.

Mujahid said the suspect is a foreign national and that the attack was organised jointly by IS and 'rebels,' apparently a reference to anti-Taliban groups in Afghanistan.

"Some foreign circles are behind the attack and the aim was to create distrust between the two brotherly countries Afghanistan and Pakistan," Mujahid wrote. The Taliban took over Afghanistan in August 2021 as US and NATO forces were in the final weeks of their pullout from the country after 20 years of war. PTI

According to Singapore news agency CNA, Anwar, who is also the finance minister, was flanked by deputy prime ministers Ahmad Zahid Hamidi and Fadillah Yusof as well as Chief Secretary to the Government Mohd Zuki Ali during the press conference at the prime minister's office.

Finally, commuters can use public transport without virus test in Beijing

BEIJING

CHINA is easing some of the world's most stringent anti-virus controls and authorities say new variants are weaker. But they have yet to say when they might end a 'zero-Covid' strategy that confines millions of people to their homes and set off protests and demands for President Xi Jinping to resign.

On Monday, commuters in Beijing and at least 16 other cities were allowed to board buses and subways without a virus test in the previous 48 hours for the first time in months. Industrial centers including Guangzhou near Hong Kong have reopened markets and businesses and lifted most curbs on movement while keeping restrictions on neighbourhoods with infections.

The government announced plans last week to vaccinate millions of people in their 70s and 80s, a condition for ending zero-Covid restrictions that keep most visitors out of China and have disrupted manufacturing and global trade.

That spurred hopes for a quick end to zero Covid. But health experts and economists warn it will be mid-2023 and possibly 2024 before vaccination rates are high enough and hospitals are prepared to handle a possible rash of infections. "China is not ready for a fast reopening yet," Morgan Stanley economists said in a report Monday. "We expect lingering containment measures. ... Restrictions could still tighten dynamically in lower-tier cities should hospitalisations surge." The changes follow protests demanding an end to zero-Covid but are in line with Communist Party promises earlier to reduce disruption by easing quarantine and other restrictions.

China is the only major country still trying to stamp out transmission while the United States and others relax restrictions and try to live with the virus that has killed at least 6.6 million people and infected almost 650 million.

NO STRANGER TO ADVENTURE

Indian-origin boy the youngest to reach Everest Base Camp

SINGAPORE

SIX-year-old Indian-origin boy Om Madan Garg has become the youngest Singaporean to finish the Everest Base Camp trek in Nepal, a feat that has been recognised by the Singapore Book of Records.

Om made the 10-day journey with his parents in October, reaching the south base camp in Nepal at an altitude of 5,364 metre, after a trek of 65 km.

The outdoorsy child is no stranger to adventure—his parents have taken him on backpacking trips to Vietnam, Thailand and Laos since he was just two-and-a-half months old.

Om, his father Mayur Garg, 38, and mother Gayatri Mahendram, 39, kicked off their 10-day trek on September 28, aided by a guide and two porters, The Straits Times newspaper reported on Monday.

Their entire journey has been documented on the family's YouTube travel channel, The Brave Tourist, in a seven-part series. "I want to see the whole world," said Om, the Kindergarten 2 student from Canossaville Preschool whose 65 km trek took him past remote villages, Nepalese temples and monasteries, and scenic vistas of Himalayan mountains like the Everest, Lhotse and Lhotse Sar. When the going got tough on the undulating and rugged paths towards the Everest Base Camp, lollipops, raisins and cookies kept Om going on the once-in-a-lifetime expedition with his parents.

Mayur—a senior business analyst and avid mountain climber who has scaled peaks in Indonesia, Russia and Tanzania—had made the trip to Everest Base Camp in November 2021, and thought it would make for a fun family trip.

To prepare for the trip, the family watched YouTube videos of other trekkers who had logged the journey, and made it a point to be active every day six months prior to the trip.

The high-altitude hike, with an elevation gain of about 2,500 m, is a challenge even for adults. From the starting point at the Nepalese village of Lukla, which is at 2,860 m above sea level, the trio headed to the Sherpa capital of Namche Bazaar (3,440 m) and frozen lake bed Gorakshep (5,164 m) before reaching the Everest Base Camp (5,364 m). PTI

Adani offer for NDTV stake gets tepid response

Acquires only 8.3% of total equity capital against targeted 26%; falls way short of taking majority control of NDTV

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

THE open offer by the Adani Group to acquire majority stake in New Delhi Television (NDTV) didn't turn out to be a great success as only 53.3 lakh shares or 32% of the offer size (1.68 crore shares) were tendered by existing shareholders by the end of the closing day i.e December 5, 2022.

This accounts for roughly 8.3% of the total equity capital of NDTV. However, together with 29.18% stake the conglomerate had already acquired via Vishvapradhan Commercial Pvt Ltd (VCPL), the Adanis have now become largest stakeholder in NDTV and possess 37.44% stake - larger than 32.26% holding of founders Prannoy Roy and Radhika Roy. The Adanis were expecting to take their holding in NDTV to over 50% via this offer. As per a senior capital market analyst, the deep investors gave the offer a miss. Adani had offered to buy NDTV shares at ₹294 in the open offer, which represents about 25% discount to Monday's closing price of ₹394. "Adanis may now buy shares from institutional investors at additional prices and raise its stake. This means the discount of the offer price when compared with the market share price of NDTV shares is likely to be the main reason why many Roys' can buy shares and increase their holding. However, it is unlikely they have their financial firepower to go against the Adanis," said the analyst requesting anonymity.

It was on November 22 when the Adanis had launched its open offer to acquire an additional 26% in NDTV . The group had first cornered 29.18% stake in the media outlet back in August when it had acquired VCPL. As per norms, an open offer is triggered if an acquirer holds over 25% of the public shareholding in a company.

"For now, Adanis should be fine with the 8% shares that have been tendered as they would still be the single largest shareholder in NDTV. With the resulting 37% shareholding, they can still seek control of the board by reconstituting the Board," said Shriram Subramanian, MD of InGovern Research Services.

RCap stares at liquidation as bid prices disappoint

DIPAK MONDAL @ New Delhi

AS bids for Reliance Capital, which is undergoing corporate insolvency resolution process (CIRP), have been much lower than the liquidation value of ₹13,000 crore, a major difference of opinion has cropped up between the lenders and the Reliance Cap administrator.

While the committee of creditors (CoC) wants to proceed with the ongoing process and bring finality to the resolution process by awarding the company to the highest bidder, administrator Y Nageshwar Rao wants the company to go into liquidation.

Sources told this newspaper administrator's advisor Deloitte is of the opinion that the value of the bids is so low (60-70% below the liquidation value) that RCap should go for liquidation. RCap has received 4 binding bids on November 28, which was the last date for submitting the bids. The highest bid of ₹5,231 crore has been submitted by a consortium of Cosmea Financial and Piramal. Hindujas with ₹5,060 crore has emerged as the second highest bidder, followed by Torrent Investment (₹4,500 crore) and Oaktree (₹4,200 crore). Valuation reports by independent valuer Duff & Phelps has pegged the liquidation value of RCap at ₹12,500 crore while RBSA has valued the company's assets at ₹13,200 crore. Sources said Life Insurance Corporation of India (LIC) and EPFO, who collectively control 35% of voting rights in the CoC, hold the key to resolving the differences. LIC has total claims of ₹3,400 crore while EPFO has claims of ₹2,500 crore. The decision by LIC and EPFO will play a pivotal role in deciding final resolution process. They have to decide whether they want the resolution or liquidation and what option they want to choose in case they wish to go ahead with the resolution process.

SpiceJet cites global agency to claim safety processes in order

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

DAYS after SpiceJet made an emergency landing at Kochi airport after technical snag, the carrier on Monday said the International Civil Aviation Organisation's (ICAO) audit of India's aviation safety oversight mechanism last month has found their operations, safety processes and systems to be in order.

"The ICAO audit is the benchmark of safety. We are proud that our safety culture, systems, processes and operations have been found to be in order and at par with the global best practices and safety standards," said Ajay Singh, Chairman and MD, SpiceJet.

"We are proud that SpiceJet was the only scheduled Indian airline to undergo validation checks by ICAO in this audit. This audit is a testament to the highest standard of safety followed by SpiceJet."

SpiceJet was till recently under the DGCA's scanner following a number of technical glitches on its flights mid-air. The regulator had previously capped its flight departure and slew of instructions to be followed by the airline in the wake of an emergency landing in Hyderabad around mid-October following detection of smoke inside the cabin.

After not reporting any major glitches for over a month, a SpiceJet flight from Jeddah (Saudi Arabia) bound for Kozhikode with 197 passengers, including six crew members, onboard had an emergency landing at the Cochin International Airport Limited (CIAL) on December 2 following hydraulic failure.

Experts say price cap on Russian oil may make crude oil dearer

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

THE cap on Russian oil by the European Union (EU), G7 and Australia is likely to increase the price of crude oil in the market, believes market experts.

According to experts, cap on Russian oil, which is effective from today (5 December 2022), will also increase the under-recoveries of refiners like Indian Oil Corporation Limited, Bharat Petroleum Corporation Limited, Hindustan Petroleum Corporation Limited, Reliance Industries Limited, Nayara Energy Limited on sale of transport fuel and LPG.

"The cap on Russian oil is likely to lead to some moderation in supplies from Russia for the initial few months which could lead to increase in crude oil prices," said Prashant Vasisht, Vice-President and Co-Head, Corporate Ratings, ICRA Limited. "This could potentially benefit upstream companies even as downstream companies could post under-recoveries on sales of auto fuels and LPG," he added. Upstream companies are those which are engaged in exploration and extraction of crude oil while downstream companies refine and sell the crude.

In a bid to restrict Russia's revenue from crude export, the EU, G7 and Australia proposed to cap Russian oil at $60 per barrel. The price cap means Russia can't ship its crude more than that price, using G7 and EU tankers, insurance companies and credit institutions. The many major shipping and insurance companies are based within the G7. However, Russia, which is the world's second largest oil producer, denied accepting the price cap, and said it would stop oil supply, whosoever country follows the price cap.

Meanwhile, India, which used to import less than 1%, enhanced its export manifold this year, and now imports 22% of its total crude from the country.

ON A TIGHT LEASH

- The EU, G7 and Australia proposed to cap Russian oil at $60 per barrel
- Experts say cap on Russian oil will increase under-recoveries of downstream companies like IOCL, BPCL, HPCL, RIL on sale of transport fuel and LPG
- Price cap means Russia can't ship its crude more than that price, using G7 and EU tankers, insurance companies and credit institutions

Discom's AT&C loss falls to 17% in FY22 from 22% in FY21

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

DISCOMS' aggregate technical and commercial loss (AT&C loss) declined to 17% in the financial year 2021-22 (FY22) from 22% in FY21.

Power ministry said reduction in AT&C losses improves the finances of the utilities, which will enable them to better maintain the system and buy power as per requirements, benefitting the consumers.

"In the last two years, the AT&C loss of Discoms of the country was hovering around 21-22%. Power ministry instituted a number of measures to improve the performance of utilities. Preliminary analysis of data for FY2022 of 56 Discoms contributing to more than 96% of input energy, indicates that the AT&C losses of Discoms have declined significantly to 17% in FY2022 from 22% in FY2021," said the government in a press note.

The government further said the reduction in AT&C losses has resulted in reduction in the gap between average cost of supply (ACS) and average realizable revenue (ARR).

The ACS-ARR gap (on subsidy received basis, excluding Regulatory Income and UDAY Grant) has declined from ₹0.69/kWh in FY2021 to ₹0.22/kWh in FY2022.

The decline of 5% in AT&C losses and 47 paise in the ACS-ARR gap in one year is the result of a number of initiatives taken by the Ministry of Power.

PAN may be sole ID for single-window clearance, says minister Piyush Goyal

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

THE government is considering using the Income Tax Department's permanent account number (PAN) as the unique identifier for entering into the national single-window system (NSWS) that kicked off in September last year, commerce and industry minister Piyush Goyal said Monday.

Currently, over 13 IDs are being used to get clearances from various ministries and departments including those of state level.

"...with PAN, a lot of basic data about companies like their directors, addresses, and a lot of common data is already available in the PAN database," Goyal said. He added that the states which will support the NSWS and speed up the approval process will get faster approval. NSWS, which aims to be a game changer for increasing investments and reducing compliance burden, is in a beta testing phase and will integrate the renewal of existing licencing in the near future, Goyal said. So far, NSWS has given clearances to 48,000 applications out of the total 76,000 applications submitted so far. Big corporate houses like Nestle, Indian Oil, Hindustan Petroleum, Tata Group, Adani Group, Panasonic and Heir Appliances. The technical glitches in NSWS were only 514, said the minister, adding that the portal showed over 99% efficiency. A top commerce ministry official said the Ministry of Commerce and Industry processed maximum number of applications (28,000), followed by the Ministry of Consumer Affairs, which gave clearances to 15,000 applications. Commerce ministry held a review meeting on Monday on NSWS which was attended by 32 central ministries/departments, 36 states/UTs and industry associations.

Myanmar emerges main route for smuggling gold into India

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

THE Directorate of Revenue Intelligence (DRI) seized 833 kg of smuggled gold worth ₹405 crore during FY2021-22 and the largest part of this valuable metal came from bordering nation Myanmar, as per the "Smuggling in India Report 2021-22", which was unveiled by Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman on Monday.

Nearly 37% of the total gold seized had its origin from Myanmar, 20% from the Middle East and 7% from Bangladesh. In FY 2019-20, the largest originating country/region of smuggled gold was the Middle East.

In the legal market, gold (24K) price currently hovers around ₹47 lakh/kg. Beside gold, narcotics, foreign currency, cigarettes and endangered wildlife species were among top smuggled commodities.

According to the report, the quantity of narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances (NDPS) seized in 2021-22 was 28,334 kg.

While addressing the 65th foundation day of DRI, the FM asked enforcement agencies to go after 'big fish' involved in drug trafficking, saying they need to find who is sending 'mountains' of illegal drugs into the country.

She also said that there is a need to enhance technology adoption, working on patterns, data analysis to be ahead of the smugglers and their modus operandi to counter the menace of gold and NDPS smuggling.

The report stated that much of this smuggled gold originated in Myanmar and was smuggled into India through the old Tamu-Moreh-Imphal trajectory in Manipur, which goes through a vast expanse of unguarded but difficult terrain, and the Zokhatwar route in Mizoram.

India, the world's second-biggest gold consumer after China, imports about 900 MT of gold a year. Gold consumption in India was 797.3 MT in 2021, the highest in past five years, according to the World Gold Council data. Gold smuggling in India is fueled by this huge demand for gold combined with import duty on licit import of gold.

A total of 13 foreign currency cases were booked by the DRI in FY21-22 whose value stood at Rs 11.37 crore. Cigarette smuggling is another area of concern and is on the rise due to high taxes on locally produced cigarettes which makes it 50% pricier than the smuggled ones. The total value of seized cigarettes by the DRI stood at about Rs 93 crore in FY22.

Jude Bellingham (L) set up England's opening goal vs Senegal. In the process, he became country's youngest ever player to provide an assist in WC since 1966 | AP

Hey Jude: English chartbuster at 19

JAMES ROBSON @ Doha

JORDAN Henderson knew exactly who to thank after opening the scoring in England's 3-0 win against Senegal at the World Cup.

Pointing a finger in the direction of Jude Bellingham, Henderson charged over to his teammate, pressed his face nose-to-nose with the teenager and stared intensely into his eyes before embracing him in celebration. With England fans going wild inside Al Bayt Stadium on Sunday, Henderson continued to gesture that Bellingham was the one deserving of their adulation after his run and cross had created the goal. "Incredible, I can't keep saying nice things about him," said Henderson, Liverpool's Champions League and Premier League-winning captain.

Praise for Bellingham, who plays for Borussia Dortmund in the Bundesliga, poured in on social media. "Goodness me, @BellinghamJude is unbelievably good. He's the leader in this team. His parents must be so proud. Love him," England great Gary Lineker wrote on Twitter.

At 19 years old Bellingham is emerging as the heartbeat of the England team. So much so that even 32-year-old Henderson, who has won club soccer's biggest prizes with Liverpool and was awarded an MBE — Member of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire — by the late Queen Elizabeth II, is in awe of his talent.

The same goes for England captain Harry Kane.

"He's a fantastic player, has everything with and without the ball," said Kane, who scored his first goal of this World Cup against Senegal after another driving run from the Borussia Dortmund midfielder. As soon Bellingham flipped the switch, it was lights out for Senegal, who had created the better chances before Henderson's goal.

His speed, energy and intelligence saw him dominate midfield and further enhance his soaring reputation.

His performances are sure to have been noted by defending champions France, who England meet in the quarterfinals on Saturday. Bellingham was already set to spark an auction among Europe's biggest clubs next summer, with Dortmund widely expected to sell to the highest bidder. And his displays at the World Cup so far should only increase competition for his services.

Manchester United have tried and failed to sign him once already, while Man City manager Pep Guardiola is a confirmed admirer. Liverpool have repeatedly been linked with a move for him. "He's going to be a superstar that kid," said former United midfielder Roy Keane. "I've not seen a young midfielder perform like that for years."

Praise does not come much higher than that in British soccer's circles.

But Bellingham, it seems, is a unifying force when it comes to appreciating a talent that was evident from the age of 16 when he broke into Birmingham's first team and prompted United and others to try to lock him down. AP

Image of Pele shines bright for Brazilian fans at WC

AP @ Doha

THE image of a young Pele celebrating goals and lifting trophies with Brazil's national team appeared brightly on the shirts, flags and banners of Brazilian fans gathering before the Seleçao's match against South Korea on Monday.

The 82-year-old remained in a hospital in Sao Paulo, recovering from a respiratory infection. The news coming from Brazil early Monday was good, as two daughters and one grandson of the soccer great said he was not under an imminent risk of death. It was reason for celebration for the many Brazilians who have been cheering for the Selecao and showing their support to Pele in Qatar.

"We are all happy to hear that he is getting better," 35-year-old Brazil fan Raphael Bissonho said. "He's the King of Football, our biggest symbol in soccer. He represents Brazil as best as anyone. Let's hope that soon he is out of the hospital and showing us a photo of him watching the national team on the television."

Pele had a colon tumor removed last year, but neither his family nor the hospital have said whether it had spread.

MATCH POINT

Morocco, who have conceded only one goal in three matches, will be a stern test for Spain's title credentials. A look...

CEDING POSSESSION, HITTING ON THE BREAK

Morocco have had fewer than 45% possession in all three of their games but they have broken at pace and hurt teams down both flanks. A similar pattern could unfold on Tuesday considering La Furia Roja love to hog the ball.

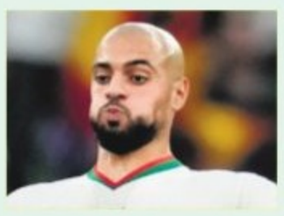
PENETRATION, NEED OF HOUR

After their opening day show against Costa Rica, Spain have lost some of their verticality that was on show. They need to find that again if they are to cause some significant problems to their African opponents.

KEY PLAYERS

ALVARO MORATA

Spain can have all the ball carriers but they need somebody to finish their flowing moves. Morata is a polarising figure but he's in form, can head the ball and will occupy defenders.



SOFYAN AMRABAT

They have better players but none of them have Amrabat's engine in the middle of the park. he breaks up play, recycles possession and is a ball-winner. Very key traits against a side that likes the ball.

Asian side takes lead before 2018 finalists equalise, but loses composure in shoot-out

CROATIA END JAPAN ADVENTURE

AGENCIES @ Doha

CROATIA reached the quarterfinals of the World Cup on Monday with a dramatic 3-1 penalty shoot-out win over Japan after a tense last-16 clash ended 1-1.

Mario Pasalic struck the winning penalty to send Croatia through after Ivan Perisic had pulled Croatia level in the 55th minute of normal time following Daizen Maeda's opener for Japan just before the break. Japan's bid to reach the last eight for the first time in their history came to a crushing end after another display of the sort which saw off Spain and Germany on their way to topping Group E.

However they could not claim one more big European scalp in the shape of the 2018 finalists and go home in the second round, as they did four years ago, after having three of their penalties saved.

Japan could easily have been ahead within three minutes when Shogo Taniguchi glanced a header wide from point-blank range, and 10 minutes later Daizen Maeda came close to turning in Junya Ito's brilliantly placed low ball from the right flank. In the meantime Perisic had let off a shot from a tight angle which led to a goalmouth scramble, but had Croatia, who had twice prevailed in shoot-outs in 2018, scored they risked the goal being ruled out for what looked like a clear push on Takehiro Tomiyasu.

Bruno Petkovic then wasted a great opportunity in the 25th minute, strolling through almost unopposed onto a long through ball only to dawdle and fail to get a pass off to Andrej Kramaric who was charging into the box.

Kramaric was then too slow to latch on to Perisic's dangerous flick-on and from there Japan took control, and the lead.

Daichi Kamada had already blasted over after a superb passing move when in the 43rd minute Maeda fired in the opener after Ritsu Doan's cross was knocked down by Maya Yoshida.

Japan, featuring in their first shoot-out at the World Cup since, 2010 (lost to Paraguay) looked the better team and ready to inflict more damage but out of the blue Croatia's most dangerous player Perisic levelled the scores with a bullet header from Dejan Lovren's deep cross.

Almost immediately afterwards, Wataru Endo responded by having a good strike tipped over the bar by Dominik Livakovic, before Shuichi Gonda pulled off the save of the match to keep out Modric's beautifully-struck, dripping shot.

Modric was replaced nine minutes into the first half of extra-time in which Japan had the best chance, Kaoru Mitoma's effort well tipped away by Livakovic.

QUICK PASSES

Lewandowski coy on Poland future after exit

DOHA: Poland captain Robert Lewandowski refused to confirm if he had played his last ever game at the World Cup after his side were knocked out of the tournament in Qatar. "Physically I'm not afraid of this but we have so many different things outside of football, whether your happiness is still there and what's going on around so it's tough to say now," Lewandowski, who'll be almost 38 by the time the next World Cup comes, said.

FIFA probes 'incidents' during Serbia WC game

DOHA: FIFA said on Monday it had opened disciplinary proceedings against the Serbian football association following the team's bad-tempered World Cup clash with Switzerland. Football's governing body said it was looking at several potential breaches of its disciplinary code including the misconduct of players and officials, and discrimination. FIFA referred to "incidents" during the group stage game, without saying what they were.

Uruguay players charged for confronting referee

DOHA: Four Uruguay players were charged with offensive behavior by FIFA on Monday for their angry pursuit of the referee after being eliminated from the World Cup. The Uruguayan soccer federation also faces an extra charge of discrimination, FIFA said without giving details. The Uruguay team thought they should been awarded a penalty kick in stoppage time during their 2-0 win over Ghana on Friday.

INTRIGUING BATTLE

The round of 16 match sees Portugal face Switzerland in what is one of the most fascinating contests so far of the World Cup. A look...

MIDFIELD CLASH

In one of only two-all European affairs in this stage, the contest could be won or lost in midfield. Portugal will likely have more of the ball, question is can they pull the Swiss defence. That could be the key to deciding the outcome of the game.

WATCH OUT FOR THE SWISS COUNTER

Under the new regime, the Swiss have added a decent counter-attacking threat and that was on show against a very loose Serbian defence. Their midfield will look at the wide players for very quick ball progression and the verticality they need to upset their more illustrious opponents.

Switzerland: Sommer (1), Widmer (3), Akanji (5), Schar (22), Rodriguez (13), Freuler (8), Xhaka (10), Shaqiri (23), Sow (15), Vargas (17), Embolo (7).

Portugal: Costa (22), Dalot (2), Dias (4), Pepe (3), Cancelo (20), Silva (9), Neves (18), Carvalho (14), Bruno (8), Ronaldo (7), Felix (11).

KEY PLAYERS

BRUNO FERNANDES: In a team that can sometimes dawdle on the ball and opt for safety first passing, he is gold dust. Is an excellent vertical passer and can thread those eye of the needle assists.

BREEL EMBOLO: He's deceptively quick and can bring in the wide attackers where they can do some serious damage. Is also in form having scored two times in their group matches.

Crunch: It's time to talk about Ronaldo and what he brings to the side

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN
@Chennai

WHEN it was confirmed that Cristiano Ronaldo had signed for Manchester United, there was much consternation among the United-supporting UK public. His first game back would be against Newcastle United on Saturday afternoon. That meant the homecoming wouldn't be broadcast anywhere across the UK (a football blackout rule prevents broadcasters from showing any live football between 2.45 and 5.15 PM in the UK).

The homecoming, though, was a blast. The Portuguese thrilled the Old Trafford faithful by bagging a brace. Fourteen months later, the 37-year-old is one of the most famous unemployed persons on the planet. The homecoming had gone sour, like a long ignored fruit stored on the bottom of the vegetable basket. Having had enough, United moved on. A hero was asked to leave through the front door with the world watching on. The irony here is that it suited both parties.

While he remains a great goalscorer, he had become a disruptive presence. The last straw was seemingly turning his back on the players and the coach when he opted to leave the dugout and head to the dressing room and ultimately to the car park during a narrative-turning 2-0 win over Tottenham in October. It also suited the 37-year-old because he didn't want to be a bit-part player, an impact substitute warming the bench.

While Ronaldo's descent from immortality to just another player will hurt him — he has dedicated the entirety of his adult life in the pursuit of personal glory and individual excellence — he can still rewrite the November and December of his career. His quest to rewrite late-era Ronaldo begins against Switzerland on Tuesday. It can last 90 minutes. Or 120 minutes. Or four matches before he lays his hands on the sport's ultimate prize.

Portugal came through relatively unscathed in a very tricky group. It is to the team's credit that they didn't allow a mutinous Ronaldo interview to put them off their stride. It brought unnecessary attention and at least one very awkward handshake between Bruno Fernandes and himself. The player himself appeared defiant.

The first match against Ghana saw him break yet another record — only man to score in five World Cups — but he faced more questions about his post World Cup.

In that match, he did help his team by winning and scoring the penalty. Save that moment, he was either anonymous (19 passes attempted, 33 touches, one pass into the final third and zero dribbles) or let his team down (two big chances missed). He was more effective against Uruguay (50 touches, 4 passes into the final third and 38 passes attempted) before his limitations were again laid bare against South Korea (one big chance missed, zero successful dribbles, 26 touches, three offsides and 19 attempted passes).

It goes back to the heart of the Ronaldo debate in itself and why the elite clubs have started to see him as a liability, as an impact substitute at most. He doesn't offer a great deal in terms of build-up play and isn't all that adept in bringing other attackers into the game (his Expected Assists is 0.08 over three games). In short, if he plays, the others will have to do the heavy lifting.

The one thing he still has in abundance is the leap he generates while heading the ball. To try and capitalise, Portugal have had no choice but to put in crosses off either wing (one of those even brought them a goal but Ronaldo didn't get a touch on it).

Going into the tournament, Portugal did have the option of going in with a fluid front three of Bernardo Silva, Rafael Leao and Joao Felix. But dropping Ronaldo was going to be a no-no. With him in the side, their attacking patterns become predictable. The interchange between Ronaldo and Felix, who starts on the left, doesn't happen all that often so it becomes easier for opponents to read the play.

Some of this is understandable. The march of Father Time is relentless and nobody is immune, including Ronaldo. But he has shown previously that he's nothing if not a serial winner. All of the criticisms of the five-time Ballon d'Or winner were valid even in June when he scored two against Switzerland in a comfortable 4-0 win.

Portugal will hope that he is able to roll back to clock for a few more times between December 6 and December 18. Ronaldo himself will believe — he always believes in himself — but at stake is something ever bigger. It's a chance to win back the narrative. And he likes nothing more than that.

Anderson, Robinson help England win 1st Test

England showcased its masterful approach of aggression in Test cricket with a superb 74-run victory over Pakistan in the first Test. Needing 263 runs with 8 wickets in hand on Day 5, Pakistan was dismissed for 268 against the reverse swing of James Anderson (4-36) and Ollie Robinson (4-50). Brief scores: Eng 657 & 264/7d bt Pak 579 & 268 (Anderson 4/36, Robinson 4/50).

KYLIAN INSTINCT

Mbappe ready to take over from Messi & Ronaldo, who likely are playing their last WC

ANDREW DAMPF @ Doha

CRISTIANO Ronaldo's precision. Lionel Messi's vision. The speed and power of the original Ronaldo — the one from Brazil. Kylian Mbappe is elevating his performance to a new dimension at the World Cup.

As Messi and Cristiano Ronaldo play what will likely be their final World Cup, the France and PSG striker is erasing any questions over who might succeed them as the sport's new superstar.

Mbappe delivered another stellar performance when he scored twice and set up another goal for defending champion France in a 3-1 win over Poland to reach the quarterfinals. "We know about Kylian, of course. He speaks on the soccer field," France coach Didier Deschamps said.

Kylian Mbappe is the leading scorer this edition with five goals so far | AP

Having already scored four goals when he led his country to the title four years ago as a 19-year-old phenom, the now 23-year-old Mbappe has five and is the leading scorer in this edition of soccer's biggest event. His nine career World Cup goals make him the first player to score that many before the age of 24, breaking a record previously held by Pele, who had seven at that point.

It's not just about goals for Mbappe, whose career arc continues to draw comparisons to Pele, the Brazilian great who had won two World Cup titles by the time he turned 21.

Mbappe is ready to follow Pele, Diego Maradona, Cristiano Ronaldo and Messi into the pantheon of soccer greats.

"He hurt us today but I am cheering for him because he is a real star," Poland coach Czesław Michniewicz said through a translator. "I'm talking about Messi, Ronaldo, (Robert) Lewandowski. If someone is going to take over, I think Mbappe will be the player to be the best one for many years."

Playing on the left wing against Poland, Mbappe's first hint of magic came with a pass to himself. In an instant, Mbappe accelerated up to 35 kph (22 mph) as he kicked the ball forward into empty space then burst past Przemysław Frankowski to collect it several metres ahead. While that action didn't result in a goal, it laid the framework for what was to come on a night when Mbappe showed off his full arsenal of weapons. Up next for Mbappe is a quarterfinal duel with England on Saturday. AP

'Homework of 1k penalties for Spain'

ANDREW DAMPF @ Doha

SPAIN coach Luis Enrique gave his team a unique assignment following a penalty shootout loss to Italy at last year's European Championship. "I told my players they have homework ahead of the World Cup. You need to take at least 1,000 penalties with your club," Luis Enrique recounted Monday. "We can't just work on it in our training camp with the national team."

While Spain are hoping they won't come down to a shootout against Morocco in the round of 16 on Tuesday, at least the team is well prepared if it does get to that point. Spain were also eliminated in a penalty shootout at the 2018 World Cup, by host Russia.

Luis Enrique | AFP

"It doesn't just depend on luck. It's a moment of the highest pressure. If you've trained for that often, then the way you take a penalty will improve," Luis Enrique said. "Obviously you cannot train for the pressure and the tension. But it's manageable. You can cope with that pressure."

Ferran Torres converted a penalty for Spain in their opening 7-0 win over Costa Rica. Spain goalkeeper Unai Simon saved two penalties in a shootout win over Switzerland before the loss to Italy at Euro 2020. "The goalkeepers are ready, too. You've seen it in our training sessions," Enrique said. "It's homework that we've taken into account."

Morocco have been one of the biggest surprises of the tournament by winning a difficult group ahead of 2018 finalist Croatia and 2018 semifinalist Belgium. Morocco conceded only one goal in its three group matches and the team has big support in Qatar as the last of the four Arab qualifiers still playing — and now the last African team, too, after Senegal was eliminated by England on Sunday. As close neighbors, there are also a lot of ties between Morocco and Spain. AP

NUGGETS & TRIVIA

In the 1970 World Cup, yellow cards and substitutions were introduced. USSR's Kakhi Asatiani who was playing against Mexico was the player to receive a yellow card caution.

During World War II, FIFA's Vice President Ottorino Barassi took the World Cup trophy from a bank and placed it in a shoebox under his bed to protect it from Nazi troops.

Italy's Gianfranco Zola is the only player to ever be sent off on his birthday. He was sent off against Nigeria after making a foul against Augustine Eguavoen. Due to this, he missed the next two world Cup matches as well.

Spoke on chance of leading India U19: Shafali's father

GOMESH S @ Chennai

WHEN the BCCI announced the squad for the inaugural U19 T20 World Cup on Monday, it took quite a few by surprise to see Shafali Verma as captain and inclusion of Richa Ghosh. After all, the duo has been playing international cricket for over a couple of years now. And although they have always been eligible, they have not been part of any camp of U19 tournaments BCCI had organised — including the ongoing series against New Zealand development squad in Mumbai — to pick a team for the tournament in South Africa over the last 12 months.

But the one person who was extremely happy, but not necessarily taken by surprise when he got the news, was Shafali's father Sanjeev Verma. "I am delighted. We spoke about it last year when the World Cup was announced. She wasn't sure if she would play. I told her she will play and might become captain also. Sometimes, you just have those instincts," Sanjeev told this daily.

Shafali's doubt was valid, for she has been playing international cricket for three years. And what more, there is a tri-series featuring India, South Africa and West Indies during the U19 World Cup, followed by the senior women's T20 World Cup in February. She will be in the rainbow nation from December till February with India U19 playing T20 bilateral series against the hosts later this month. In fact, when asked if she would take part in the tournament earlier this year, Shafali said that it is not likely.

She had told her father the same when they had a conversation about the U19 World Cup. "I told her the important thing is that the women want to win a World Cup, and I told her there is a high chance of captaincy and bringing the World Cup home. If you win, it will be remembered forever by everyone. Today, I told her the same. Now, she also has it in her mind. I am also happy about whatever is happening."

Sanjeev, however, is aware that there is another World Cup to be won in February — the one Shafali missed in the final two years ago. The star of the 2020 T20 WC, missed out on a big innings in the summit clash and was in tears as India lost to Australia in front of 86,174 fans at the Melbourne Cricket Ground. Sanjeev believes she has grown with experience. As far as shifting to U19 cricket from senior, Sanjeev says that there might be a difference and she would know better.

With chunks of their bark peeling off and needles falling from dying branches, more and more trees are being killed by the spruce bark beetle, which is venturing further and further north with climate change

ATTACKING THE PICEA ABIES

The tiny brown insects attack the Picea abies, one of Finland's most common tree species, and can cause massive damage to forests

Burrowing through the bark to lay their eggs, the beetles eat their way around the spruce and kill it by stopping water and nutrients reaching the higher branches

CLIMATE CHANGE ACCELERATES THE RISK

The species has caused huge damage across Central and Eastern Europe, especially since 2018, With climate change, the risk of the beetle spreading is a "lot higher now" —Markus Melin, a scientist at the Natural Resources Institute Finland, told AFP

BARK BEETLE DAMAGE IN NORTHERN FINLAND

While the threat is greatest in southern Finland, the sweltering summer of 2021 saw bark beetle damage "unusually high up north" in the Kainuu region of northern Finland

WARM SUMMERS HELP THE BEES THRIVE

- "Extreme warm summers benefit the bark beetle directly. They have less mortality, reproduction is faster," Melin said.
- The beetles thrive on weakened trees. Hot summers mean there are more water-starved spruce, while warm winters mean there is no frozen ground to brace the trees against storms

Construction begins on powerful telescope

SPACE

SYDNEY: Australia on Monday started building a vast network of antennas in the Outback, its section of what planners say will eventually become one of the most powerful radio telescopes in the world.

When complete, the antennas in Australia and a network of dishes in South Africa will form the Square Kilometre Array (SKA), a massive instrument that will aim to untangle mysteries about the creation of stars, galaxies and extraterrestrial life.

The idea for the telescope was first conceived in the early 1990s, but the project was plagued by delays, funding issues and diplomatic jockeying. The SKA Observatory's Director-General Philip Diamond described the beginning of its construction as "momentous". The telescope "will be one of humanity's biggest-ever scientific endeavours", he said.

Its name is based on the planners' original aim, a telescope that could observe a one-square-kilometre surface, but the current South African and Australian sections will have a combined collecting area of just under half that, according to the observatory.

Both countries have huge expanses of land in remote areas with little radio disturbance—ideal for such telescopes. More than 130,000 Christmas tree-shaped antennas are planned in Western Australia, to be built on the traditional lands of the Wajarri Aboriginal people.

'Goblin mode' is Oxford's chosen word of the year

CULTURE

LONDON: Asked to sum up 2022 in a word, the public has chosen a phrase.

Oxford Dictionaries said Monday that "goblin mode" has been selected by online vote as its word of the year. It defines the term as "a type of behaviour which is unapologetically self-indulgent, lazy, slovenly, or greedy, typically in a way that rejects social norms or expectations." First seen on Twitter in 2009, "goblin mode" gained popularity in 2022 as people around the world emerged uncertainly from p lockdowns. This year's winning phrase was chosen by public vote, from among three finalists: goblin mode, metaverse and the hashtag IStandWith.

US police defends 'killer robots' plan

TECH

SAN FRANCISCO: Police in San Francisco defended their potential use of killer robots on Thursday, insisting they would be a "last resort" and only for very dangerous situations.

Detectives in the California city, where residents complain of a spike in crime, were granted permission this week to deploy machines capable of lethal force.

City supervisors said if a high-ranking San Francisco Police Department officer gives the green light, armed robots could be sent in to tackle very violent suspects like mass shooters or suicide bombers.

"The use of robots in potentially deadly force situations is a last resort option," San Francisco Police Chief William Scott said Thursday.

"We live in a time when unthinkable mass violence is becoming more commonplace. We need the option to be able to save lives in the event we have that type of tragedy in our city."

Momentous Food Celebrations

2022 is a landmark year for many legacy F&B outlets which are hitting milestone anniversaries

ASLAM GAFOOR

(The writer is a Bengaluru-based hospitality professional, food lover, and travel enthusiast)

THIS year, legendary brand Copper Chimney is marking its milestone anniversary by releasing a limited-edition Autograph menu. Now in its 50th year, Copper Chimney was founded by JK Kapur after he migrated across the border from Lahore to a newly independent India in 1947. Armed with memories of his mother's home cooked food flavours, Kapur put together a team to start the Copper Chimney journey in 1972, recreating the food inspired from his roots down to every detail.

The Autograph menu offers both brand-new recipes and tried-and-true classics, with each dish conveying a story about the diversely rich culinary legacy of a united India from Peshawar to Delhi. While the mutton kalia and the parda chicken kabab are inspired by the flavourful, aromatic street kababs, the Himalayan gucchi pulao incorporates the black morels, or gucchi, from the foothills of Kashmir. The slow-cooked raan peshawari originates from the campfires of tribes and warriors in the North-West Frontier Province, while the chewy, milk-fudgey barfi served at Baked Dhoda – Copper Chimney dates back to 1912 when it was developed as a source of energy for the area's wrestlers. Last but not least, the tangy Kashmiri soda was inspired by the sodas that pushcart merchants hawked in the by lanes of Lahore.

1522 founder Chethan Hegde is launching Adda1522 this month as homage to White Horse, which his father KM Hegde launched in Malleshwaram 41 years ago. Chethan opened 1522 as an expansion above White Horse in 2011 to cater to a younger, more music-loving crowd. The success of the brand led to the opening of multiple 1522 outlets in Bengaluru and Mumbai. Paying a tribute to White Horse and Bengaluru of the '70s, Adda 1522 will sport an old-world charm with wall art by renowned cartoonist Paul Fernandes – all complemented with local food, old-school music and a vintage chilled-out vibe.

This year, Impresario Handmade Restaurants, the company behind famous brands Social, Smoke House Deli, Salt Water Café, and Mocha, celebrated their 20th anniversary with a commemorative menu. The 20-year menu transported diners back in time by bringing all of their restaurants' greatest hits from the past and present at the original prices from back then. Some of the dishes on the limited-edition menu included the Naga chilli cheese toast and mutton baida roti from Social, the tenderloin shiitake from Salt Water Grill, the polenta Chicken from Salt Water Cafe, and the chocolate from Mocha.

Spanning generations, Bengalureans have long embraced Lakeview Milk Bar on MG Road as a hangout to savour flavourful ice cream scoops with family and friends. James Meadow Charles started Lakeview in 1930 and later sold it to Vrajlal Jamnadas in 1947. Anish Vakharia and his mother Kalpana, who run the business now, have played a significant role in preserving the establishment's nostalgic atmosphere. The menu at Lakeview, which now has four locations in the city, is updated regularly with new ice cream flavours, a selection of snacks, and bakery goods that are made in-house with stringent quality checks.

In the past, it was considered that there was no market for the fashion industry in Bengaluru. However, I've realised the fashion sense here is understated. I felt it was my sort of market

Tarun Tahiliani, celebrity designer

'I FIND SOUTH INDIANS TO BE VERY SOPHISTICATED'

Celebrated designer Tarun Tahiliani, who launched his first studio in the city, speaks to CE about the store's interiors, his admiration for the South Indian sense of style, and his vision for fashion

A freshly-painted heritage bungalow with fairy lights lined all along and the divine smell of jasmine. These are just glimpses of the sights, sounds and smells from the launch of Tarun Tahiliani's first store in Bengaluru. The designer, who primarily planned the evening himself, made sure it was one to remember.

Tahiliani introduced his style and design philosophy, India Modern, to the who's who of the city with an AV of his brand's 'stream-of-consciousness' video which was followed by a show where models walked in his creations. A live show by folk musicians and a Kathakali performance was also a part of the evening. It was a carnival, to say the least. Quite pleased with himself and the reception that the show got, Tahiliani says, "I know it is madness, but it's worth it."

The store is situated in an old heritage bungalow on Raja Ram Mohan Roy Road, which used to be known as Bohemian House a few years ago. The interiors include original tiled floors, stone mosaics, and handmade carpets. "I have taken an old Bengaluru mansion but kept the bones. I included my signature style and even said 'no' to a false ceiling. I wanted to keep the heritage of the place," says Tahiliani, adding that now the space can be called 'TT's Bohemian House'.

If we are talking about the decor of the studio, it is hard to miss the 'Tree of Life' wall. "Vinita Chaitanya [celebrity interior designer] is an old friend of mine, this entire embroidered wall was what she did. Along with the wallpaper, we have showcased our best embroideries that are embellished on the wall," he says, pointing to it.

Mumbai, Delhi, Hyderabad, Kolkata and now Bengaluru, even the designer admits that it took him sometime to come to the city. "In the past, it was considered that there was no market for the fashion industry in Bengaluru. However, I've realised how sophisticated people here are. They don't care about Bollywood. The fashion sense is very understated and I felt it was my market," he says, as he gives instructions to his team to restock rosé for his guests.

Having been raised in South Bombay, the designer has huge admiration for the sense of style in South India. "I find South Indians to be very sophisticated. Not too much jewellery, and beautiful in their own skin. For me, it represents a new India. Bengaluru has a very techie vibe, but fashion-wise, they keep it low-key and at the same time, classy. I love that. What they do is for themselves and not for anyone else. That's when you know the society is mature," he says, adding that simple can also be beautiful.

Having been in the industry for more than three decades, Tahiliani has seen the step-by-step process of fashion evolution in India. However, he says he is currently on a mission. "It's time to integrate India and I'm trying to help people, especially weavers, who don't speak English. I want everyone to be equal," he says.

FOR BETTER & FOR VERSE

KAAVYA Sanje, an evening of poetry and a platform for poets, held at the Cubbon Park Metro Station on Sunday, brought together poetry enthusiasts from the city and beyond. Jesus Sepulveda, a poet from Chile, recited nine out of his many popular poems in Spanish. For those unfamiliar with the language, a translation was provided after each recital. "This collective experience is bringing people together and changing society radically by replacing the notion of the individual as a self-centred consumer with a sense of community," Sepulveda said.

The poet's work has been translated from Spanish into 12 languages and published in over 20 countries. Mamta Sagar, founder, Kaavya Sanje said, "Ours is a forum for poets and poems, from across languages and geography. Jesus Sepulveda, who is a voice of resistance in Chile, reminds us of the essence of poetry – liberation." At the event, poems in Kannada, Spanish, and English were heard, as these gatherings bring together poets who write in a variety of languages and come from different cities. The subjects of the poems were important to the author's heart and included messages of social duty, love, and the little joys of life.

Sepulveda's Inferno which he wrote in Spanish, was the first reading of the evening. It described the overwhelming feeling he had in the capital of Chile when he saw the people loitering around. "I was amazed by their intensity, and their immensity," he said.

Another poem of Sepulveda titled White Dragons in the Snow, described his feeling after both his parents died within 29 days of each other.

LEKSHMI C PILLAI

CE looks at how to maintain your car properly for an odour-free, clean interior

CARS are not mere machines, but often our second homes. Most car owners spend an average of three to four hours daily in their cars.

Obviously, the exterior look, interior feel and freshness of the car matter. Conditions like lousy odour, damping ambience and insufficient AC cooling will affect the mood of the travellers. So, how to keep car interiors fresh and healthy? Here are some helpful hacks to keep your car neat and smelling fresh, with relatively little time or effort.

SEAT, SWEAT AND AC

The seat cover made of mesh is breathable and reduces sweat	Dirt and bacteria negatively impact a car's air conditioning system
Wooden bead and leather covers will also help reduce sweat	To prevent moisture, remove damp items from your car
Run your A/C on defrost mode once a week	Close car windows and sunroof on rainy days
Check your filter. Clean or change the air filter whenever it is dirty	Constantly check for leaks inside the car
	Use a garage to park the car

REMEDY FOR CAR SICKNESS

Some experience motion sickness during travelling. Here are some steps to reduce it.

- Breathe in soothing mint, ginger or lavender scents
- Candies and chewing gum is another way
- Drink plenty of water. Avoid spicy foods and alcohol before travel
- Roll down windows in cars. Direct air vents toward you
- Put down the phone, tablet or book during travel
- Look at an object in the distance or the horizon
- Close your eyes, lie back and take a nap
- Always face forward when travelling
- Fresh, cool air can also relieve motion sickness
- Sitting in the front seat reduces motion sickness

PUT TRASH INTO THE DUSTBIN DAILY

- Leave an open bag of nature's toxin-absorber charcoal briquettes in the car overnight
- Keep some baking soda in a sealed container with small holes in the top
- For natural air freshening, put some vanilla on cotton balls or a container of ground coffee
- Avoid smoking and drinking inside the car. If you do, roll down the windows slightly.
- Refrain from eating inside, even if it is just a packet of chips
- Use seat covers that can be wiped
- Place an air freshener, if you don't have an allergy towards such smells
- If there is a smell from the engine, your car needs attention because they point to mechanical problems

Power-packed Cherokee

Jeep has launched an all-new Grand Cherokee in India with a starting price of ₹77.5 lakh (ex-showroom, India). The newly-introduced model is based on an entirely new architecture. It has been meticulously designed and engineered to deliver better performance both on and off the road. Compared to the earlier models, this 5th-gen SUV has more space, versatility, and functionality. It comes with more than 110 advanced safety and security features, including an active driving assistance system. The engine is paired with an 8-speed automatic transmission. The new Jeep Grand Cherokee is now available at select Jeep dealerships across India with deliveries starting by the end of November.

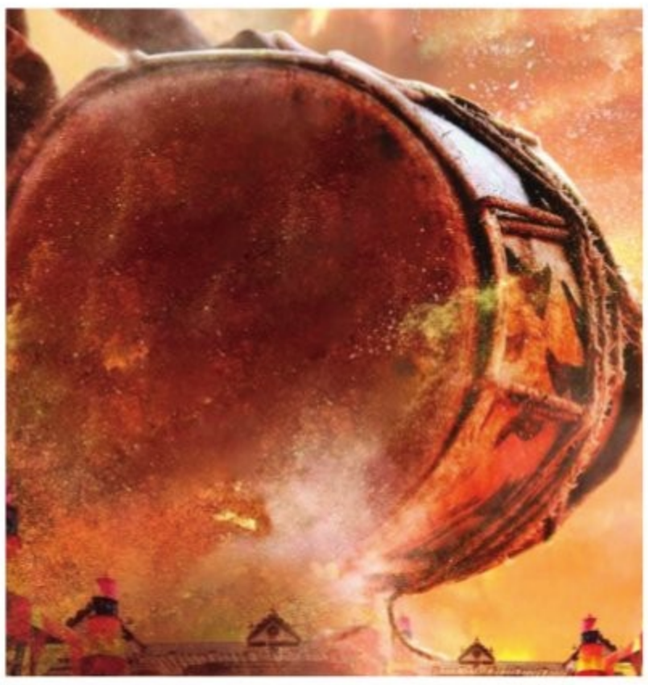
Kranti's first single Dharani will be released by my celebrities: Darshan

The Challenging Star himself shares details about the unique audio launch

A SHARADHAA

EVEN though there is more than a month left for the release of Darshan's Kranti, the Challenging star's fans are leaving no stone unturned to promote the film. The team of Darshan, director V Harikrishna, and the production house Media House Studio, are planning unique ways of promoting Kranti. The first single, titled Dharani, will be dropped on December 10 in a function to be held in Vijaya Tent House, Mysuru. Interestingly, unlike a regular audio launch, Darshan plans to anchor the event, and will present the song amidst his scores of fans. The actor who addresses his fans as a 'celebrity' shared that one of his fans would be the one to unveil the song at the event.

The Challenging Star in a special announcement about the Dharani song, said, "I will not be coming to the show as a hero but as the anchor. The entire Kranti team will be making our presence at this event, and my celebrities will be releasing the song."



Darshan and Harikrishna duo have given several hit albums, and Kranti will be their 27th film together. Dharani is billed to be a theme song, and according to the music director, the lyrics beautifully penned by Nagendra Prasad is a pucca Kannada song. "Dharani will draw a lot of emotions, and it will be one of those few Kannada tracks that will individually stand out, and also will remain in the hearts of not only the Kannada speaking people, but will have a universal appeal, and will be played at various occasions," says V Harikrishna, who has brought together 8 singers — Pancham Jeeva, Santhosh Venky, Aniruddha Sastry, Madhwesh Baradwaj, Vihan, Khusala, Lakshmi Vijay, Meghana Kulkarni, Pooja Rao, Archana, and Prarthana — for this particular song.

Talking in particular about the lyric video, which will be out on DBeats audio label, Harikrishna said that although the video is filled with special sequences and montages, it will be different from the original song that will be shown at the event.
